Reimagining Education: Studies and Stories for Effective Learning in an Evolving Digital Environment Deborah Cockerham,Regina Kaplan-Rakowski,Wellesley Foshay,Michael J. Spector,2023-05-30

Technology has developed at a tremendous rate since the turn of the century but educational practice has not kept pace. Traditional teaching practices still predominate in many educational settings and educators are often intimidated by new technology. However, as tragic as the COVID 19 pandemic has been, it has caused many people to rethink education and opportunities provided by new technologies for effective teaching and learning. How can educational communities of practice be reimagined to support a growth mindset for learning? This volume explores innovative visions for 21st century learning. The content explores the experiences of teachers with new technology, presents research studies that highlight effective strategies and technologies, and shares lessons learned from a unique researcher-practitioner mentoring model. Educational approaches that worked well, challenges that were difficult to overcome, and potential benefits of effective technology integration will encourage readers to reimagine education and implement practices that can strengthen the future of online education.

Environmental Education, 2008-01-01. In Environmental Education: Identity, Politics, and Citizenship, the editors endeavor to present views of environmental educators that focus on issues of identity and subjectivity and how narrated lives relate to questions of learning, education, politics, justice, and citizenship. What is distinctive about this collection is that it highlights the views of Latin American scholars alongside those of scholars from Spain, Canada, New Zealand, Taiwan, South Africa, Australia, and the U.S. The result is a philosophically nuanced reading of the complexities of environmental education that begins to reshape the landscape in terms of ethics, ontology, epistemology, and politics. The collection bears the stamp of the location of its contributors and strongly reflects an activist, qualitative, and ethnographic orientation that emphasizes the ground for action, the identity of environmental actors, and the contribution that education in all its forms can make to sustainability and the cause of the environment. At the same time, contributors go beyond simple slogans and ideologies to question the accepted truths of this rapidly emerging field.
