Theodor W. Adorno Detlev Claussen, 2009-06-30 He was famously hostile to biography as a literary form And yet this life of Adorno by one of his last students is far more than literary in its accomplishments giving us our first clear look at how the man and his moment met to create critical theory An intimate picture of the quintessential twentieth century transatlantic intellectual the book is also a window on the cultural ferment of Adorno's day and its ongoing importance in our own The biography begins at the shining moment of the German bourgeoisie in a world dominated by liberals willing to extend citizenship to refugees fleeing pogroms in Eastern Europe Detlev Claussen follows Theodor Wiesengrund Adorno 1903 1969 from his privileged life as a beloved prodigy to his intellectual coming of age in Weimar Germany and Vienna from his exile during the Nazi years first to England then to the United States to his emergence as the Adorno we know now in the perhaps not so unlikely setting of Los Angeles There in 1943 with his collaborator Max Horkheimer Adorno developed critical theory whose key insight that to be entertained is to give one's consent helped define the intellectual landscape of the twentieth century In capturing the man in his complex relationships with some of the century's finest minds including among others Arnold Schoenberg Walter Benjamin Thomas Mann Siegfried Kracauer Georg Lukács Hannah Arendt and Bertolt Brecht Claussen reveals how much we have yet to learn from Theodor Adorno and how much his life can tell us about ourselves and our time

Damn Bunch of Cripples Lew Shaver, 2003-09 I was sitting in a small upstairs room attempting to write this narrative of my education in disability awareness For over 30 years I have been involved in working with individuals with disabilities as a coach and administrator on the intercollegiate national and international levels When I started this journey at a small Midwestern University I had no idea of what I was getting myself into Now that I have traveled this educational path I have come to realize that it may have been one of the most important learning experiences of my life an experience I feel needs to be shared In putting this narrative together one very real issue I struggled with was how to deal with the present climate of political correctness My decision was to tell the stories as I remember them in the language as I remember To do differently would change and compromise the actual experience Thus this is a sharing of feelings and experiences that a coach and his athletes spent in timeless hours in a gym practicing and competing of thousands of miles traveled throughout the United States and beyond and days and nights spent together in laughter and frustration

*Ready! Set! Go!
