

An artistic illustration depicting a journey. In the foreground, a young woman with short dark hair and blue eyes looks directly at the viewer. Behind her, a winding path leads up a green hill. Along the path, two more young women are shown: one in a green shirt and yellow collar, and another in an orange shirt. In the background, two medical professionals in blue scrubs and masks stand on a blue background. The overall style is painterly and symbolic.

Teenage Cancer Journey:

Teenage Cancer Journey Kathleen A. Gill, 1999 Teenage Cancer Journey provides insight into the issues facing young people who have been diagnosed with cancer Written in a frank engaging style it captures the array of emotions that arise during an adolescent's battle with cancer At times both humorous and heart wrenching Teenage Cancer Journey describes the author's personal struggles with philosophical questions Why me as well as with practical dilemmas Will my wig stay on while I'm riding a roller coaster It offers advice to teens on losing their hair relating to friends and family who aren't sick and balancing school responsibilities while undergoing treatment The book also provides a brief introduction to cancer and includes anecdotes from others who have battled cancer as teens Teenage Cancer Journey is a helpful resource for young people with cancer as well as for family and friends who want to understand the teenage cancer experience Book jacket

Touched by Cancer Teri Rose, 2014-04-01 Young beautiful and completely self absorbed Teri Rose was 19 and a sophomore in college when she was diagnosed with non Hodgkin lymphoma Touched by Cancer shares her journey through chemotherapy radiation the possibility of never having children and tumultuous relationships with herself and the men in her life Honest and straight forward Teri Rose reveals her innermost thoughts and feelings as she travels the often lonely road of illness and recovery

Two-Timed: an Adolescent Cancer Memoir Danielle DuChateau, 2021-01-20 The journals are those of a girl I once knew who had cancer and wrote about her experiences She wanted to share her story in a way that would have helped her in a book about having cancer as a teen written by a teen who experienced it She wasn't lost in battle but she's been gone a long time and I haven't been able to forget her or let her go The story seems unfamiliar and yet I know it by heart It feels like yesterday but seems like a lifetime ago It's the story I never wrote because it was already written and at the heart of it is my journey with cancer a muse a curse and a blessing I've read the book before but I never closed the first chapter a book of journals written by a girl who had cancer Cancer is a part of my story and being a survivor is part of my identity but it is not my entire identity as I felt it was when I was younger At the end of my second treatment I decided I was going to write my story and publish it I even thought of the perfect title for my book Two Timed An Adolescent Cancer Memoir I thought of it because I felt two timed by my own body whose very defense system had attacked itself and it had happened to me twice But I didn't write the story The years went by and I decided I could not very well write an adolescent memoir when I was well into my twenties but I still had my journals all the journals Several more years elapsed until now twenty three years after the journey began I am finally writing the story

Nursing Adolescents and Young Adults with Cancer Pia Riis Olsen, Sam Smith, 2018-05-30 This book describes and explains how caring for adolescents and young adults with cancer AYA has developed into what is now a recognized and distinct field of nursing practice It captures current innovative nursing practices and interventions which have developed over the past 25 years across the globe and are supported by research and evidence achieved in many European and international oncology settings By outlining and describing educational needs of the AYA cancer nursing profession this book supports its education and professional development for the nursing profession and serves to develop and disseminate nurses competencies worldwide During the last decade AYA have gained increased attention in healthcare Today it is recognized that AYA with cancer have distinct needs that are different to both children and older adults Young people are in a unique developmental and transitional phase of their lives thus their treatment perspectives and experiences have been addressed in research and the body of knowledge is growing accordingly Some books are available that describe AYA cancer care service delivery and aspects of age appropriate care but this volume will be the first to focus on how nurses contribute to AYA cancer care in practice It will appeal to the AYA clinical nurses in cancer care as well as to multidisciplinary healthcare professionals and healthcare professionals who support formal nursing education programmes training and development in practice
