Tel Aviv State Arnon Sofer, 2006 Tel Aviv-Jaffa Arnold Sherman, 1988 Tel Aviv-Jaffa, One City, Two Worlds Shoshana Elharar, 2021 This dissertation concentrates on one urban site Tel Aviv Jaffa in Israel The hyphen between the two names Tel Aviv and Jaffa alludes to their separated past present and maybe future In the past they were two cities Tel Aviv the younger was established in 1909 while Jaffa is thousands of years old The focus of this dissertation is the last century During this significant historical period as modernity gave way to the postmodern period we find the erection of Tel Aviv suburb next to the old city of Jaffa a small Jewish site that grew in time to become the countrys leading city Each of these two cities was independent until 1950 when international and local circumstances led to their unification into one city carrying both names Tel Aviv Jaffa with a hyphen added between the two names Drawing on thousands of archival documents primary and secondary sources guided tours in both parts of the city and interviews this dissertation charts the changing relations of these two sites Exploration of both cities jointly is quite rare This dissertation analyses both parts before their unification and why the new Jewish immigrants to Jaffa separated themselves physically from the Arabs spirit continuing with the unification of the two cities into one and ending with the contemporary state of both sides of this one hyphenated city It concludes with the question is it better considered as one or two as just moving from one side to the other reveals the feeling of crossing from one world to another

Palestinians in Jerusalem and Jaffa, 1948 Itamar Radai, 2015-12-14 Between November 1947 and May 1948 war between the Palestinian Arab community and the Jewish community encompassed

Palestine with Jerusalem and Jaffa becoming focal points in the conflict due to their centrality size and symbolic importance

Palestinians in Jerusalem and Jaffa 1948 examines Palestinian Arab society institutions and fighters in Jerusalem and Jaffa during the conflict It is one of the first books in English that deals with the Palestinian Arabs at this crucial and tragic moment in their history with extensive use of Arabic sources and an inquiry from the Palestinian vantage point It examines the causes of the social collapse of the Palestinian Arab communities in Jerusalem and Jaffa during the 1948 inter communal war and the impact of this collapse on the military defeat This book reveals that the most important internal factors to the Palestinian defeat were the social changes that took place in Arab society during the British Mandate namely internal migration from rural areas to the cities the shift from agriculture to wage labour and the rise of the urban middle class By looking beyond the well established external factors this study uncovers how modernity led to a breakdown within Palestinian Arab society widening social fissures without producing effective institutions and thus alienating social classes both from each other and from the leadership With careful examination of a range of sources and informed analysis of Palestinian social history Palestinians in Jerusalem and Jaffa 1948 is a key resource for students and scholars interested in the modern Middle East Palestinian Studies the Arab Israeli conflict and Israel Studies Welcome to Israel Lilly Rivlin, Gila Gevirtz, 2000 Illustrations photographs maps and text introduce the history culture religions and peoples of Israel Jaffa Shared and Shattered Daniel Monterescu, 2015-08-24 Binational cities play a pivotal role in situations of long term conflict and few places have been more marked by the tension between intimate proximity and visceral hostility than Jaffa one of the mixed towns of Israel Palestine In this nuanced ethnographic and historical study Daniel Monterescu argues that such places challenge our assumptions about cities and nationalism calling into question the Israeli state s policy of maintaining homogeneous segregated and ethnically stable spaces Analyzing everyday interactions life stories and histories of violence he reveals the politics of gentrification and the circumstantial coalitions that define the city Drawing on key theorists in anthropology sociology urban studies and political science he outlines a new relational theory of sociality and spatiality Overthrowing Geography, 2005 Framing Sukkot Gabrielle Anna Berlinger, 2017-09-20 An important and timely study of the Jewish holiday s temporary shelters and the meaning of home Journal of Folklore Research The sukkah the symbolic ritual home built during the annual Jewish holiday of Sukkot commemorates the temporary structures that sheltered the Israelites as they journeyed across the desert after the exodus from Egypt Despite the simple Biblical prescription for its design the remarkable variety of creative expression in the construction decoration and use of the sukkah in both times of peace and national upheaval reveals the cultural traditions political convictions philosophical ideals and individual aspirations that the sukkah communicates for its builders and users today In this ethnography of contemporary Sukkot observance Gabrielle Anna Berlinger examines the powerful role of ritual and vernacular architecture in the formation of self and society in three sharply contrasting Jewish communities Bloomington Indiana South Tel Aviv Israel and
