Introduction to Media Production Gorham Kindem,Robert B. Musburger, PhD,2012-08-21 Long standing book on media production brings media production into the digital age Television Production in Transition Gillian Doyle,Richard Paterson,Kenny Barr,2021-05-03 Focusing on the growing power of transnational media corporations in an increasingly globalized environment for distribution of television content and on the effects of mergers and acquisitions involving local and independent television production companies this book examines how current and recent re structurings in ownership across the television industry reflect changing business models how they affect creativity and diversity of television output and to what extent they call for new approaches to regulation and policy Based on a major study of the UK production sector as a case study it offers a unique analysis of wider transformations in ownership affecting the television production industry worldwide and of their economic socio cultural and policy implications Performing Fear in Television Production Siao Yuong Fong, 2025-10-01 What goes into the ideological sustenance of an illiberal capitalist democracy While much of the critical discussion of the media in authoritarian contexts focus on state power the emphasis on strong states tend to perpetuate misnomers about the media as mere tools of the state and sustain myths about their absolute power Turning to the lived everyday of media producers in Singapore this book poses a series of questions that explore what it takes to perpetuate authoritarian resilience in the mass media How in what terms and through what means does a politically stable illiberal Asian state like Singapore formulate its dominant imaginary of social order What are the television production practices that perform and instantiate the social imaginary and who are the audiences that are conjured and performed in the process What are the roles played by imagined audiences in sustaining authoritarian resilience in the media As argued in the book if audiences function as the central problematic that engenders anxieties and self policing amongst producers can the audience become a surrogate for the authoritarian state The Migration of U.S. Film & Television Production, 2001 Television: The Director's Viewpoint John W. Ravage, Jack Ravage, 2019-08-08 Television directors remain an enigma to most students of the mass media traditionally their function has been little understood by scholars and the viewing public In this book John Ravage studies the role of the director in the producer dominated medium of commercial television Built around lengthy interviews with twelve of the leading directors of commercial programs representing all the genres of prime time the book analyzes the major issues facing television its past present and portents for the future and the audience that watches it
