Newspaper features and one H (photo, left include:

- Banner or B
- Headline: is short, attention-getting title for the news article
- Byline: the name of the reporter who wrote the story
- Dateline: Usually included in all capital letters in the first paragraph, this tells the city and state where the story takes place.
- Photo: a picture that has something to do with the story
- Caption: the writing underneath the photo that explains what is happening in the photo

First, think about what happened in the story, "The Tell-Tale Heart" by Edgar Allan Poe.

Now, pretend you are a newspaper reporter. Consider the five Ws and one H.

Then, make up the answers to your questions. Think from the point of view of the narrator, the old man, and the policeman.

Finally, create a newspaper article on the back of this sheet that tells the story of what happened that night. Be sure to include all the elements of a newspaper (banner or flag, headline, byline, dateline, photo and caption).

Answer the following questions before you get started.

What was involved in the incident?

What happened that night?

When did it happen? What was the weather like that night?
