Rosalind Thuillier, 2015-05-28. A compelling biographical study of a leading twentieth-century British artist, Graham Sutherland's Life, Work and Ideas offers new insight into how he and his paintings developed. In the culmination of her life's work, Rosalind Thuillier builds on the reflections and recollections of a friendship spanning decades to craft a comprehensive study of Sutherland's life and works, interweaving his perceptive responses to his own art taken from personal notes and correspondence with critical reviews and collectors' musings to give an authentic picture of the man whose work divided critics. Drawing on Sutherland's personal archive, the book includes an expansive collection of images that provide a fresh view of the artist. Studies by Sutherland along with preparatory works for what would become renowned paintings are published for the first time. Graham Sutherland's distinctive style and the emotions that shaped the paintings are here vividly explored. Thuillier describes not only the inspiration he found in the windswept Pembrokeshire countryside but also his time as an official war artist and his friendships inside and outside the art world. She expertly details the process behind the creation of works such as the controversial portrait of Churchill (1954, subsequently destroyed) and his most famous work, the huge Christ in Glory in the Tetramorph tapestry (1962, Coventry Cathedral). Graham Sutherland: Life, Work and Ideas is not merely a biography but a journey behind the scenes of the artist's career, exploring the paintings, relationships and influences that formed his vision as an artist and his undeniable contribution to art. Nikolaus Pevsner

Susie Harries, 2011-08-18. Born Nikolai Pevsner into a Russian Jewish family in Leipzig in 1902, Nikolaus Pevsner was a dedicated scholar who pursued a promising career as an academic in Dresden and Göttingen. When in 1933 Jews were no longer permitted to teach in German universities, he lost his job and looked for employment in England. Here, over a long and amazingly industrious career, he made himself an authority on the exploration and enjoyment of English art and architecture so much so that his magisterial county-by-county series of 46 books on The Buildings of England (first published 1951-74) is usually referred to simply as Pevsner. As a critic, academic and champion of Modernism, Pevsner became a central figure in the architectural consensus that accompanied post-war reconstruction. As a general practitioner of architectural history, he covered an astonishing range from Gothic cathedrals and Georgian coffee houses to the Festival of Britain and Brutalist tower blocks. Susie Harries explores the truth about Nikolaus Pevsner's reported sympathies with elements of Nazi ideology, his internment in England as an enemy alien and his sometimes painful assimilation into his country of exile. His Heftchen secret diaries, kept from the age of 14 for another sixty years, reveal hidden aspirations and anxieties, as do his numerous letters he wrote to his wife Lola every day that they were apart. Harries is the first biographer to have read Pevsner's private papers and through them to have seen into the workings of his mind. Her definitive biography is not only rich in context and far-ranging but is
