

Texas Teacher Appraisal History:

J. Hughes

- ❑ Prior to the passage of the Term Contract Nonrenewal Act (TCNA) in 1981 there was no state law requiring any kind of teacher evaluation in Texas.
- ❑ The TCNA required that all contract teachers be evaluated in writing at least once a year. All other decisions about evaluation, including what instrument to use, were left to the local districts.
- ❑ House Bill 72 in 1984 imposed the Texas Teacher Appraisal System (TTAS) which tried to adopt a uniform system of teacher evaluation in Texas.
- ❑ TTAS was intended to be an instrument that measured the difference between the average classroom teacher and the instructional star.
- ❑ Despite huge state investments in the development of TTAS, in 1993 the legislature dismantled the program and made significant changes to the appraisal system.
