Management Specialist 3 Robert K. Rhodes,1990 Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board,1988 The Devil In Kilgore, Texas Stephen E. Yocum,2015-09-22 The Devil in Kilgore Texas is a suspenseful novel of historical fiction recounting the lives of a poor highly dysfunctional family during The Great Depression of the late 1920 s The central characters are three young children two brothers and their girl cousin who endeavor to survive the daunting crucible of those hard times and the neglect of their uncaring self absorbed parents The raw telling of the nature of this abuse is dark and unflinching yet truthful to the actions of far too many people that produce children having no concept or desire to love and nurture them The children s journey is one of struggle and redemption Their love for one another their bond of strength Along the way they encounter decent people strangers that teach them that not every adult they meet is evil or cruel and that the children's previously unknown concepts of fidelity and being loved are not some abstract unattainable dream only played out in their collective wistful imaginings. This unshakable covenant of love, hope and survival between the children is the heart of the story. The darker moments are but a background. On a parallel path is the character-rich true story of a Texas town and its people amid the largest oil discovery in U.S. History. How a blessing of riches turned overnight into a pernicious calamity creating a boomtown of thousands of grasping seekers and scoundrels fostering the destruction of this small hamlet while stealing the innocence of its citizens. Both compelling stories of the children and the town dramatically speed towards a shared and redemptive climax.

A Hidden Truth (Home to Amana Book #1) Judith Miller, 2012-09-01 Bestselling Author Judith Miller Debuts New Series Set in the Amana Colonies. When Karlina Richter finds out that a new shepherd will be sent to East Amana, she fears she'll no longer be able to help her father with the sheep. She'll be relegated back to kitchen work, a job she dislikes. Her fears increase when Anton Becker arrives and shows little interest in the flock or in divulging why he's been sent to East Amana. Dare she trust Anton to help her father or is he keeping secrets that will impact them all? After learning that her father will be transferred from Cincinnati to a job in Texas, Dovie Cates decides she wants to visit the Amana Colonies where her mother spent her formative years. She writes to relatives still living in the Colonies and is invited to spend some time there. Soon after her arrival, Dovie meets Berndt, the handsome young man who delivers bread to the kitchen house each day. But when Dovie begins to ask questions about her mother's past, no one seems willing to tell her anything, so Dovie decides to take matters into her own hands. Will her decision spell disaster for her future with Berndt?

CHIHUAHUA HILL CHRIS DABOVICH, 2010-09-23 THE DABOVICH FAMILY TREE SAVO SAM DABOVICH GRANDFATHER CHRISTINA DABOVICH GRANDMOTHER CHRIS DABOVICH FATHER EUSTOLIA DABOVICH MOTHER NIKO DABOVICH UNCLE DANITZA SABOVICH AUNT EVA SZMARDICH AUNT ZORA VUKASOVICH AUNT I am writing this as an adult. I will try to recollect some things about each one of my relatives as I remember them as a boy. My Grandfather Savo was a slight man in my youthful eyes. I remember him sitting on his porch in the lowest rocking chair I have ever seen. He and my Grandmother lived directly below our house on Chihuahua Hill. He was real old. My Grandfather would not rock on that chair. I would go to visit him and he would point to a wooden crate and he would tell me to sit down in his native Austrian dialect. He would say "shedy shedy" and he would say something to me in Serbian which of course I did not understand. He called me "Krsto" that meant Chris. I suppose I would visit my Grandparents maybe once a week. He was a very quiet man who never went anywhere. I went to see him one day and the rocking chair was empty. I went home and told my parents that Yedo Grandfather wasn't in his rocking chair. My Mom and Dad looked at each other and told me he had died. My eyes welled up with tears and I went to

my room to cry I missed for a long time but I eventually got over it My Grandmother was a tough yet gentle Lady She was on the go all the times All day and night time too Her name was Christina but I called her Baba Grandmother She wore a scarf or some such cloth on her head all year long She wore dresses down to her ankles and she had long sleeves to cover her arms All I ever saw of her was her face and hands really She wasn't on the slight side yet she wasn't skinny When she made coffee she would save the coffee grounds and mix them in the dirt where she had cabbage planted as well as onions and radishes When Yeda died Baba started some kind of chant It was a slow dull haunting chanting sound that she chanted as she did her housework her gardening even when she was doing nothing in particular Every Saturday my father would walk with her to the bank to draw money from her bank account She did not like to keep money at home thus the weekly trips to the bank She would draw enough money for that particular week's needs only That was the only time she would leave her house She was a very clean lady She would clean the dining table about four or five times a day I never knew why That's quirky I suppose When she died we were not allowed to go to her services We were too young
