The Camrose Vision:

The Viking Cup LeRoy Johnson, 2021-10-13 How does a small college in a rural Alberta city of just over 12 000 people become host to the finest hockey players in the world Now a part of the University of Alberta Camrose Lutheran College was challenged to compete against larger city colleges Through persistence in following a vision the school and the community embraced the potential of the Viking Cup in 1980 opening their doors to the world of hockey through this unique international exchange program Outside the Cold War was raging but barriers seemed to melt as the love of hockey played on By the time the Cup had its last hurrah in 2006 the NHL had drafted more than 400 players from its ranks The Viking Cup memoirs and stories of the program s founder is a joyful account of an important chapter of Canada s hockey history

Ecotourism David A. Fennell, 2025-08-01 The new sixth edition of Ecotourism focuses on an array of economic social and ecological inconsistencies that continue to plague ecotourism in theory and practice and examines the sector in reference to other related forms of tourism impacts conservation sustainability education and interpretation policy and governance and the ethical imperative of ecotourism as these apply to the world s greenest form of tourism Building on the success of prior editions the text has been revised throughout to incorporate recent research including ecotourism taking place in underrepresented world regions It includes new case studies on important themes in research and practice as well as learning objectives in each chapter David A Fennell provides an authoritative and comprehensive review of the most important issues including climate change and UN Sustainable Development Goals Ecotourism continues to be embraced as the antithesis of mass tourism because of its promise of achieving sustainability through conservation mindedness community development education and learning and the promotion of nature based activities that are sensitive to both ecological and social systems The book debates to what extent this promise has been realised An essential reference for those interested in ecotourism the book is accessible to students but retains the depth required for use by researchers and practitioners in the field This book will be of interest to students across a range of disciplines including geography economics business ethics biology and environmental studies

The Gospel Trumpet , 1920 The City is an Ecosystem Deborah Mutnick, Margaret Cuonzo, Carole Griffiths, Timothy Leslie, Jay M. Shuttleworth, 2022-08-09 The City is an Ecosystem maps an interdisciplinary community engaged response to the great ecological crises of our time climate change biodiversity loss and social inequality which pose particular challenges for cities where more than half the world s population currently live Across more than twenty chapters the three parts of the book cover historical and scientific perspectives on the city as an ecosystem human rights to the city in relation to urban sustainability and the city as a sustainability classroom at all educational levels inside and outside formal classroom spaces It argues that such efforts must be interdisciplinary and widespread to ensure an informed public and educated new generation are equipped to face an uncertain future particularly relevant in the post COVID 19 world Gathering multiple interdisciplinary and community engaged perspectives on these environmental crises with contemporary and historical case study discussions this timely volume cuts across the humanities and social and health sciences and will be of interest to policymakers urban ecologists activists built environment professionals educators and advanced students concerned with the future of our cities

Running with the Angels is the story of a mother s sudden loss of her son a loss that shattered her to the core of her being Writing a book did not enter her mind as she worked through her intense grief However words seemed to write themselves as the author studied journaled jotted notes on scrap paper recorded her thoughts and feelings wiped the tears off her face and documents kept writing in a confused mixture of English French and occasional swear words Persisting through the mess paragraphs appeared some chapters lined up a book took shape as the mother s grief became reconciled and integrated over the years Now it has evolved into a completed memoir May this book serve as a survival guide and a source of hope for all bereaved mothers and fathers

Sales Management ,1954 Alberta, Past and Present John Blue,1924

Associations Canada ,2007 The Remarkable Chester Ronning Brian L. Evans,2013-11-01 Scholar and diplomat Brian L Evans gives us the first English language biography of Chester A Ronning 1894 1984 diplomat politician educator and one of Canada s major public figures This fascinating story depicts Ronning the man who received many honours and deepens readers knowledge of Canada s post World War II diplomacy and Canada China relations Ronning was an extraordinary Canadian who combined Chinese sensibility with Norwegian calm practicality and American drive His life journey was entwined with the history of China over many decades Based on written materials historical documents and many hours of interviews with Ronning his friends and fellow politicians The Remarkable Chester Ronning offers both a thorough and entertaining biography and a lens through which to view international politics

The Social Credit Movement in Alberta John A. Irving,1959-12-15 On the night of August 22 1935 as Canadians listened to their radios they heard with amazement and incredulity that the first Social Credit government in the world had been elected that day in the province of Alberta Before the tabulation of votes was completed telephone calls from New York and London headlines in newspapers spot news in broadcasts had confirmed the slogan of Social Crediters The Eyes of the World are on Alberta The morning after the election a number of people lined up at the city hall in Calgary to collect the first installment of the Social Credit dividend of 25 monthly which they confidently believed would be immediately forthcoming from their new government

This quotation from Professor Irving's book indicates how the apparent suddenness of the Social Credit rise to power and the magnitude of the victory aroused world wide comment Why had the doctrines of Social Credit promoted unsuccessfully in the British Commonwealth and the United States for nearly twenty years achieved political acceptance in Alberta Why had the people of Alberta elected to public office persons so little experienced in the economic and political world as William Aberhart and his Social Credit colleagues Professor Irving answers these questions and analyses systematically and comprehensively the rise of the movement as a phenomenon of mass psychology His study based mainly on interviews supplemented with references to private papers newspapers and government sources provides a truly fascinating record
