ever seen One could have believed that the whole earth had fallen into a cellar vault It was impossible to distinguish water from land and one could not find one's way on the most familiar road And it couldn't be otherwise for not a ray of light came from heaven All the stars stayed at home in their own houses and the fair moon held her face averted The silence and the stillness were as profound as the darkness The rivers stood still in their courses the wind did not stir and even the aspen leaves had ceased to quiver Had any one walked along the seashore he would have found that the waves no longer dashed upon the sands and had one wandered in the desert the sand would not have crunched under one's feet Everything was as motionless as if turned to stone so as not to disturb the holy night The grass was afraid to grow the dew could not fall and the flowers dared not exhale their perfume On this night the wild beasts did not seek their prey the serpents did not sting and the dogs did not bark And what was even more glorious inanimate things would have been unwilling to disturb the night's sanctity by lending themselves to an evil deed No false key could have picked a lock and no knife could possibly have drawn a drop of blood In Rome during this very night a small company of people came from the Emperor's palace at the Palatine and took the path across the Forum which led to the Capitol During the day just ended the Senators had asked the Emperor if he had any objections to their erecting a temple to him on Rome's sacred hill But Augustus had not immediately given his consent He did not know if it would be agreeable to the gods that he should own a temple next to theirs and he had replied that first he wished to ascertain their will in the matter by offering a nocturnal sacrifice to his genius It was he who accompanied by a few trusted friends was on his way to perform this sacrifice Augustus let them carry him in his litter for he was old and it was an effort for him to climb the long stairs leading to the Capitol He himself held the cage with the doves for the sacrifice No priests or soldiers or senators accompanied him only his nearest friends Torch bearers walked in front of him in order to light the way in the night darkness and behind him followed the slaves who carried the tripod the knives the charcoal the sacred fire and all the other things needed for the sacrifice On the way the Emperor chatted gaily with his faithful followers and therefore none of them noticed the infinite silence and stillness of the night Only when they had reached the highest point of the Capitol Hill and the vacant spot upon which they contemplated erecting the temple did it dawn upon them that something unusual was taking place

Herald and Presbyter ,1896      The Selected Works of Andrew Lang

Andrew Lang, When the learned first gave serious attention to popular ballads from the time of Percy to that of Scott they laboured under certain disabilities The Comparative Method was scarcely understood and was little practised Editors were content to study the ballads of their own countryside or at most of Great Britain Teutonic and Northern parallels to our ballads were then adduced as by Scott and Jamieson It was later that the ballads of Europe from the Faroes to Modern Greece were compared with our own with European Märchen or children's tales and with the popular songs dances and traditions of classical and savage peoples The results of this more recent comparison may be briefly stated Poetry begins as Aristotle says in improvisation Every man is his own poet and in moments of stronger motion expresses himself in song A typical example is the Song of Lamech in Genesis I have slain a man to my wounding And a young man to my hurt Instances perpetually occur in the Sagas Grettir Egil Skarphedin are always singing In Kidnapped Mr Stevenson introduces The Song of the Sword of Alan a fine example of Celtic practice words and air are beaten out together in the heat of victory In the same way the women sang improvised dirges like Helen lullabies like the lullaby of Danae in Simonides and flower songs as in modern Italy Every function of life war agriculture the chase had its appropriate magical and mimetic dance and song as in Finland among Red Indians and among Australian blacks The deeds of men were chanted by heroes as by Achilles stories were told in alternate verse and prose girls like Homer s Nausicaa accompanied dance and ball play priests and medicine men accompanied rites and magical ceremonies by songs These practices are world wide and world old The thoroughly popular songs thus evolved became the rude material of a professional class of minstrels when these arose as in the heroic age of Greece A minstrel might be attached to a Court or a noble or he might go wandering with song and harp among the people In either case this class of men developed more regular and ample measures They evolved the hexameter the laisse of the Chansons de Geste the strange technicalities of Scandinavian poetry the metres of Vedic hymns the choral odes of Greece The narrative popular chant became in their hands the Epic or the mediaeval rhymed romance The metre of improvised verse changed into the artistic lyric These lyric forms were fixed in many cases by the art of writing But poetry did not remain solely in professional and literary hands The mediaeval minstrels and jongleurs who may best be studied in L on Gautier s Introduction to his Epop es Fran aises sang in Court and Camp The poorer less regular brethren of the art harped and played conjuring tricks in farm and grange or at street corners The foreign newer metres took the place of the old alliterative English verse But unprofessional men and women did not cease to make and sing The Boy's Own Annual ,1910 Stories articles interviews puzzles games jokes and other miscellaneous writings for boys The Big Book of Fairytales & Fantasy Classics Lewis Carroll,Oscar Wilde,George MacDonald,Andrew Lang,Maurice Maeterlinck,Johnny Gruelle,John Ruskin,Arthur Ransome,Nathaniel Hawthorne,Georgette Leblanc,Carl Sandburg,Evelyn Sharp,Marion St. John Webb,J.
