The Brave New World Of Fritz Brandtner:

The Brave New World of Fritz Brandtner Helen Duffy, Frances K. Smith, 1982 Scott, Brandtner, Eveleigh, Webber Esther Trépanier, 2022-10-15 Four artists who are today relatively or almost entirely unknown one woman and three men nevertheless played a part in the aesthetic upheavals that led to abstraction in 1940s Montreal Very active in the art milieu throughout the decade Marian Dale Scott Fritz Brandtner Henry Eveleigh and Gordon Webber captured the attention of critics of the time who employed the term abstract art to describe both non objective works and bold formal explorations that retained some reference to visible reality An examination of these artists practices reveals a remarkable openness to international contemporary art trends French German British and American Their work and its critical reception conjure a complex picture of the debates on abstraction that took place in Montreal during the 1940s so often reduced to the controversies surrounding the emergence of the Automatiste movement The artistic innovations of Paul mile Borduas and his group and the radical tone of their 1948 manifesto Refus global cemented their status as Quebec s abstract avant garde but also had the effect of eclipsing other visions of abstraction being explored during the same period This book reinstates the oeuvres of these forgotten protagonists in the narrative of abstract art illustrating how their practices encompassed a variety of themes emotion science human experience in the broadest sense but also as the Second World War unfolded the violence that marked their era Aldous Huxley Raychel Haugrud Reiff, 2009 An in depth analysis of Aldous Huxley his writings and the historical time period in which they were written The Routledge Companion to Expressionism in a Transnational Context Isabel Wünsche, 2018-09-03 The Routledge Companion to Expressionism in a Transnational Context is a challenging exploration of the transnational formation dissemination and transformation of expressionism outside of the German speaking world in regions such as Central and Eastern Europe the Baltics and Scandinavia Western and Southern Europe North and Latin America and South Africa in the first half of the twentieth century Comprising a series of essays by an international group of scholars in the fields of art history and literary and cultural studies the volume addresses the intellectual discussions and artistic developments arising in the context of the expressionist movement in the various art centers and cultural regions The authors also examine the implications of expressionism in artistic practice and its influence on modern and contemporary cultural production Essential for an in depth understanding and discussion of expressionism this volume opens up new perspectives on developments in the visual arts of this period and challenges the traditional narratives that have predominantly focused on artistic styles and national movements Canadian Painters in a Modern World, 1925-1955 Lora Senechal Carney, 2017-09-27 From the Roaring Twenties and the Group of Seven to the Automatistes and the early Cold War Canadian artists lived through and embodied an era of global tumult and change With an interweaving of historical narrative lavish illustrations and writings by many of Canada s most revered cultural figures Lora Senechal Carney illuminates the lives perspectives and works of the era s painters and provides glimpses of the sculptors poets dancers critics and filmmakers with whom they associated Canadian Painters in a Modern World gives readers direct access to a carefully curated selection of writings artworks photos and other documents that help to reconstruct the public spheres in which artists including Paul mile Borduas Emily Carr Alex Colville Lawren Harris David Milne and Pegi Nicol MacLeod circulated Each of the book s eight chapters consists of a narrative about a key issue or debate focusing on the relationship of art to politics and society and on how these are negotiated in an individual s life Relating artistic engagement with and responses to the Spanish Civil War the Second World War and the Cold War Senechal Carney discovers a common desire for new connections between art and life Revealing continuities ruptures and watershed moments Canadian Painters in a Modern World showcases artistic production within specific socio political contexts to shed new light on Canadian art during three decades of conflict and crisis

Prairie Metropolis Esyllt W. Jones, Gerald Friesen, 2009-09-15 At the turn of the twentieth century Winnipeg was the fastest growing city in North America But its days as a diverse and culturally rich metropolis did not end when the boom collapsed Prairie Metropolis brings together some of the best new graduate research on the history of Winnipeg and makes a groundbreaking contribution to the history of the city between 1900 and the 1980s The essays in this collection explore the development of social institutions such as the city s police force juvenile court health care institutions volunteer organizations and cultural centres They offer critical analyses on ethnic gender and class inequality and conflict while placing Winnipeg s experiences in national and international contexts BRAVE NEW WORLD OF FRITZ BRANDTNER/LE MEILLEUR DES MONDES DE FRITZ BRANDTNER, 1982

Abstract Painting in Canada Roald Nasgaard, Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, 2008 In the tradition of the distinguished Douglas McIntyre art program this lavishly illustrated and superbly printed book is a rich readable history of abstract painting in Canada The story begins in the 1920s with the sometimes eccentric but remarkable work rooted in symbolism and theosophy of pioneers such as Kathleen Munn Bertram Brooker and Lawren Harris Two decades later the Automatistes Canada s first truly independent avant garde art movement burst onto the scene in Montreal After the Second World War the urge to abstraction spread across Canada manifesting itself in significant regional movements Vancouver painters retained a British flavour while in Toronto the Painters Eleven looked south to New York Montreal s Plasticiens launched their own razor edged interpretation of the European tradition of geometric abstraction In the sixties and seventies the Prairies were influenced by Clement Greenberg s post painterly abstraction while Halifax became a hub of conceptual art and concrete painting The book continues through the eighties and nineties during which critics largely denounced painting and concludes in the twenty first century with abstract painting alive and well again in the studios of Canada s young artists A monumental tome containing 200 color reproductions it mines a rich vein of art history ripe for international discovery

Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century Joan Murray, 1999-11-01 Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century is a survey of the richest most controversial and perhaps most thoroughly confusing centuries in the whole history of the visual arts in Canada the period from 1900 to the present Murray shows how beginning with Tonalism at the start of the century new directions in art emerged starting with our early Modernists among them Tom Thomson and the Group of Seven Today Modernism has lost its dominance Artists critics and the public alike are confronted by a scene of unprecedented variety and complexity Murray discusses the social and political events of the century in combination with the cultural context movements ideas attitudes and styles the important groups in Canadian art and major and minor artists and their works Fully documented well researched and written with clarity and over four hundred illustrations in both black and white and colour Murray s book is essential for understanding Canadian art of this century As an introduction it is excellent in both its scope and intelligence Picturing

the Land Marylin Jean McKay,2011 The vast Canadian landscape has captured the imagination of visual artists since the first European contact Although artistic engagement with the landscape has a long history some periods have drawn considerable critical attention while others have been left almost unexamined Picturing the Land surveys work from coast to coast from the earliest maps to postwar painting in English and French Canada To provide a comprehensive view of Canadian landscape art Emphasizing the ways in which social economic and political conditions determine representation Marylin McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art broadening the horizon of future study appreciation and criticism Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada Art and Work Angela E.

Davis,1994-12-19 Beginning with the origins of the graphic arts industry in Britain Angela Davis describes the development of technology commercial organization and professionalization of artists in Canada She focuses on the artists involved in the creation and reproduction of a popular art form The evolution of commercial illustration and the graphic arts industry Davis asserts had a dramatic impact not only on the popular press and advertising but also on illustrators engravers photo engravers and lithographers who still considered themselves to be artists but found that they were now working in an industrial atmosphere similar to that of other workers Art and Work reveals that the foundations of Canadian art and popular culture rest not only on the European traditions of fine art but also on the commercial art produced in the early graphic arts houses
