The Building Of Castle Howard:

The Building of Castle Howard Charles Saumarez Smith, 1990-03-27 This book is the first complete study of the circumstances which led to the building of Castle Howard one of the greatest and best known English country houses It describes how and why Charles Howard third earl of Carlisle decided to build it how the architect Sir John Vanbrugh received his first commission how the building was paid for and where the money came from what the original interiors looked like how the gardens and park were laid out and the decision taken to build the first classical mausoleum in England designed by Nicholas Hawksmoor It relates the physical appearance of the architecture to the hopes desires and personalities of those involved in the building and makes it possible to look at the house in the way that it was intended to be seen by visitors in the eighteenth century The Building of Castle Howard should appeal to anyone who is interested in eighteenth century architecture in the history of gardens in country houses and in a historical detective story of a house which Sir John Vanbrugh was determined should be the top seat and garden of England The Building of Britain and the Empire Henry Duff Traill, James Saumarez Mann, 1909 English Homes: Period IV, v. 2: The work of Sir John Vanbrugh and his school, 1699-1736. 1928 Henry Avray Tipping, 1928 Chambers's Encyclopaedia, 1891 House & Garden, 1907 Novel Images Peter Reynolds, 2013-07-18 Written specifically with the student in mind and focusing on a number of well known texts including Les Liaisons Dangereuses Nicholas Nickleby Nice Work and The Color Purple the contributions in this book demonstrate how we can look critically at literary adaptations and learn to distinguish between mythical images and the reality of the process that constructed them They argue that adaptations should not be seen as secondary or marginal because through them we can enter into an exciting debate with the literary text itself Originally published in 1993 Chambers's Encyclopedia, 1874 History and Topography of the City of York and the North Riding of Yorkshire, Etc T. WHELLAN, 1859 Britain in the Hanoverian Age, 1714-1837 Gerald Newman, Leslie Ellen Brown, 1997 In 1714 king George I ushered in a remarkable 123 year period of energy that changed the face of Britain and ultimately had a profound effect on the modern era The pioneers of modern capitalism industry democracy literature and even architecture flourished during this time and their innovations and influence spread throughout the British empire including the United States Now this rich cultural period in Britain is effectively surveyed and summarized for quick reference in a first of its kind encyclopedia which contains entries by British Canadian American and Australian scholars specializing in everything from finance and the fine arts to politics and patent law More than 380 illustrations mostly rare engravings enhance the coverage which runs the whole gamut of political economic literary intellectual artistic commercial and social life and spotlights some 600 prominent individuals and families Chambers's Encyclopaedia Robert Chambers, 1879 History and topography of the city of York; and the North riding of Yorkshire Whellan T. and co, 1859 Chambers's Encyclopaedia.
