The Fahrenheit Twins and Other Stories Michel Faber, 2008-10-30 Deft and lyrical this paperback edition of Michel Faber's collection of stories is his first since his auspicious debut Some Rain Must Fall. It has sealed his reputation as one of Britain's most daring and original authors. Acclaimed for his pitch perfect prose and brilliant characterisation, Faber is also celebrated for his mastery of contrasting styles. From achingly sad lost lives through moments of exquisitely distilled happiness to biblical innocence and savagery, Faber's characters are redeemed, abandoned, beloved and laid bare. Suncranes and Other Stories, 2021-07-06

Over the course of the twentieth century, Mongolian life was transformed as a land of nomadic communities encountered first socialism and then capitalism and their promises of new societies. The stories collected in this anthology offer literary snapshots of Mongolian life throughout this tumult. Suncranes and Other Stories showcases a range of powerful voices and their vivid portraits of nomads, revolution and the endless steppe. Spanning the years following the socialist revolution of 1921 through the early twenty-first century, these stories from the country's most highly regarded prose writers show how Mongolian culture has forged links between the traditional and the modern. Writers employ a wide range of styles from Aesopian fables through socialist realism to more experimental forms influenced by folktales and epics as well as Western prose models. They depict the drama of a nomadic population struggling to understand a new approach to life imposed by a foreign power while at the same time benefiting from reforms, whether in the capital city Ulaanbaatar or on the steppe. Across the mix of stories, Mongolia's majestic landscape and the people's deep connection to it come through vividly. For all English-speaking readers curious about Mongolia's people and culture, Simon Wickham-Smith's translations make available this captivating literary tradition and its rich portrayals of the natural and social worlds. The Angel, Tiger and Other Stories, Barrie Sherwood, 2019-10-28

A couple's cat leaves offerings of dead birds freighted with mysterious import. A foreign worker helps construct a concert hall that reawakens his musical longings. A young diver hunts venomous cone snails for a lovelorn researcher. With disarming simplicity, Barrie Sherwood charts how the complex bonds between lovers are unravelled to the point of breaking and the often strange and touching ways we define ourselves and our relationships in a fluctuating world. A Soothsayer's Prophecy and Other Stories, Mahesh Kulkarni, Nikhil Dambal, 2016-05-06

A man curious about his future goes to an astrologer. The astrologer prophesies that his wife will meet with an accident. Destiny decides to test whether the astrologer will remain true to his craft even though it entails ruin. Will the astrologer pass the test? A sculptor creates a very beautiful statue. The statue is infected with the praise hurled upon it. Is beauty a source of inspiration or cause of destruction? Or are creation and destruction the two great imposters? There is theft in the house of a businessman. An engineering student confesses to the police yet the investigation starts. There is a dilapidated medieval fort where poltergeist phenomena are reported. Six friends visit the fort, some out of curiosity and some out of compulsion. What happens inside the fort will haunt the ghosts for eternity. Stories that are uninhibited by the constraints of grammar, by the considerations of syntactic propriety, by the rigidities of morals and messages, is a dream destination. We believe that a story belongs more to a reader than its writer. We have tried our best to refrain ourselves from force-feeding the reader with matters that are too peripheral to matter in spite of the many temptations to do so and have made naive attempts to act as facilitators and allow the reader to paint his own environs and at times draw his own conclusions This book is more a sincere than a scholarly attempt to do this Night Train at Deoli and Other Stories Ruskin Bond,2016-04-01 An enchanting collection of stories from the heartland of India Ruskin Bond s simple characters living amidst the lush forests of the Himalayan foothills are remarkable for their quiet heroism courage and grace and age old values of honesty and fidelity Residents of nondescript villages and towns they lead lives that are touched by natural beauty as well as suffering the loss of a loved parent unfulfilled dreams natural calamities ghostly visitations a respected teacher turned crooked strangers who make a nuisance of themselves which only reinforces their abiding faith in God family and neighbour Told in Bond s distinctive style these stories are a magnificent evocation of an India that may be fast disappearing The Mad Busman, and Other Stories Ida Alexa Ross Wylie,1926 Modern Communications Techniques in Des Moines (and Other Stories) Gary Britson,2009-10-19 Love's Labour Lost and Other Stories Rāvūri Bharadvāja,1975 The Call of Cthulhu and Other Stories Lovecraft H., The Kid on the Karaoke Stage & Other Stories Georgia Richter,2011-09-01 Featuring both established and emerging Western Australian writers this short story anthology includes both fiction and creative nonfiction A quirky and memorable collection it centers on who we are and what we want to be ideas that will resonate globally despite the regional origin of the contributors The distinctive voices highlighted here present joy and pain in equal measure with humor and feeling Little Saint Elizabeth and Other Stories Frances Hodgson Burnett,1890
