The Jews of the Middle East and North Africa in Modern Times Reeva Spector Simon, Michael Menachem Laskier, Sara Reguer, 2003-04-30 Despite considerable research on the Jewish diaspora in the Middle East and North Africa since 1800 there has until now been no comprehensive synthesis that illuminates both the differences and commonalities in Jewish experience across a range of countries and cultures This lacuna in both Jewish and Middle Eastern studies is due partly to the fact that in general histories of the region Jews have been omitted from the standard narrative As part of the religious and ethnic mosaic that was traditional Islamic society Jews were but one among numerous minorities and so have lacked a systematic treatment Addressing this important oversight this volume documents the variety and diversity of Jewish life in the region over the last two hundred years It explains the changes that affected the communities under Islamic rule during its golden age and describes the processes of modernization that enabled the Jews to play a pivotal role in their respective countries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The first half of the book is thematic covering topics ranging from languages to economic life and from religion and music to the world of women The second half is a country by country survey that covers Turkey Syria Lebanon Israel Palestine Iraq Iran Afghanistan Yemen Egypt the Sudan Libya Tunisia Algeria and Morocco

the Medieval Islamic World Phillip I. Lieberman, 2021-09-02 Volume 5 examines the history of Judaism in the Islamic World from the rise of Islam in the early sixth century to the expulsion of Jews from Spain at the end of the fifteenth. This period witnessed radical transformations both within the Jewish community itself and in the broader contexts in which the Jews found themselves. The rise of Islam had a decisive influence on Jews and Judaism as the conditions of daily life and elite culture shifted throughout the Islamic world. Islamic conquest and expansion affected the shape of the Jewish community as the center of gravity shifted west to the North African communities and long distance trading opportunities led to the establishment of trading diasporas and flourishing communities as far east as India. By the end of our period many of the communities on the other side of the Mediterranean had come into their own while many of the Jewish communities in the Islamic world had retreated from their high water mark.

Radical Poetics and Secular Jewish Culture Stephen Paul Miller, Daniel Morris, 2010 This collection of essays is the first to address this often obscured dimension of modern and contemporary poetry: the secular Jewish dimension. Editors Daniel Morris and Stephen Paul Miller asked their contributors to address what constitutes radical poetry written by Jews defined as secular and whether or not there is a Jewish component or dimension to radical and modernist poetic practice in general. These poets and critics address these questions by exploring the legacy of those poets who preceded and influenced them: Stein, Zukofsky, Reznikoff, Oppen and Ginsberg among others.

The Early Shortwave Stations Jerome S. Berg, 2013-10-04 In July 1923 less than three years after Westinghouse station KDKA signed on, company engineer Frank Conrad began regular simulcasting of its programs on a frequency in the newly discovered shortwave range. It was an important event in a technological revolution that would make dependable worldwide radio communication possible for the first time. In subsequent years countless stations in practically all countries followed suit, taking to shortwave to extend reception domestically or reach audiences thousands of miles away. Shortwave broadcasting would also have an important role in World War II and in the Cold War. In this his fourth book on shortwave broadcast history, the author revisits the period of his earlier work On the Short Waves 1923-1945 and focuses on the stations that were on the air in those early days. The year-by-year account chronicles the birth and operation of the large international broadcasters as well as the numerous smaller stations that were a great attraction to the DXers or long distance radio enthusiasts of the time. With more than 100 illustrations and extensive notes, bibliography and index, the book is also a valuable starting point for further study and research.

The Annotated Arabian Nights: Tales from 1001 Nights (The Annotated Books) Paulo Lemos Horta, 2021-11-16 A new electric new translation. Each page is adorned with illustrations and photographs from other translations and adaptations of the tales as well as a wonderfully detailed cascade of notes that illuminate the stories and their settings. The most striking feature of the Arabic tales is their shifting registers: prose, rhymed prose, poetry, and Seale captures the movement between them beautifully. Yasmine Al Sayyad, New Yorker. A magnificent and richly illustrated volume with a groundbreaking translation framed by new commentary and hundreds of images of the most famous story collection of all time A cornerstone of world literature and a monument to the power of storytelling the Arabian Nights has inspired countless authors from Charles Dickens and Edgar Allan Poe to Naguib Mahfouz Clarice Lispector and Angela Carter Now in this lavishly designed and illustrated edition of The Annotated Arabian Nights the acclaimed literary historian Paulo Lemos Horta and the brilliant poet and translator Yasmine Seale present a splendid new selection of tales from the Nights featuring treasured original stories as well as later additions including Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp and Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves and definitively bringing the Nights out of Victorian antiquarianism and into the twenty first century For centuries readers have been haunted by the homicidal King Shahriyar thrilled by gripping tales of Sinbad s seafaring adventures and held utterly exquisitely captive by Shahrazad s stories of passionate romances and otherworldly escapades Yet for too long the English speaking world has relied on dated translations by Richard Burton Edward Lane and other nineteenth century adventurers Seale s distinctly contemporary and lyrical translations break decisively with this masculine dynasty finally stripping away the deliberate exoticism of Orientalist renderings while reclaiming the vitality and delight of the stories as she works with equal skill in both Arabic and French Included within are famous tales from The Story of Sinbad the Sailor to The Story of the Fisherman and the Jinni as well as lesser known stories such as The Story of Dalila the Crafty in which the cunning heroine takes readers into the everyday life of merchants and shopkeepers in a crowded metropolis and The Story of the Merchant and the Jinni an example of a ransom frame tale in which stories are exchanged to save a life Grounded in the latest scholarship The Annotated Arabian Nights also incorporates the Hanna Diyab stories for centuries seen as French forgeries but now acknowledged largely as a result of Horta s pathbreaking research as being firmly rooted in the Arabic narrative tradition Horta not only takes us into the astonishing twists and turns of the stories evolution He also offers comprehensive notes on just about everything readers need to know to appreciate the tales in context and guides us through the origins of ghouls jinn and other supernatural elements that have always drawn in and delighted readers Beautifully illustrated throughout with art from Europe and the Arab and Persian world the latter often ignored in English language editions The Annotated Arabian Nights expands the visual dimensions of the stories revealing how the Nights have always been and still are in dialogue with fine artists With a poignant autobiographical foreword from best selling novelist Omar El Akkad and an illuminating afterword on the Middle Eastern roots of Hanna Diyab s tales from noted scholar Robert Irwin Horta and Seale have created a stunning edition of the Arabian Nights that will enchant and inform both devoted and novice readers alike
