The Calling:

The Calling Eddie Lewis, 2015-11-27 THE CALLING a compendium of over thirty original compositions for unaccompanied trumpet is a musical journey like no other Representing more than two decades of composition these trumpet solos are presented in chronological order As a unified work the pieces in THE CALLING tell a story It is a story of faith of friendship and of sincere admiration THE CALLING begins with Lewis first unaccompanied trumpet solo We Shall See composed in the mid 90 s It ends with a series of inspiring teacher tributes Each of the solos in THE CALLING can be used as both a performance piece and lesson study material THE CALLING is not however an etude book It is an ambitious anthology of bold and captivating original performance pieces for the unaccompanied trumpet The Calling Daniel Yemchuk, 2013-09 They stood watching as he threw down the rules of the game Everyone was broken Yet he knew none were to reach the experience he had obtained He realized he was one in a billion to have truly lived and be saved There was little time The demons were reproducing for nothing more empty memories It was his call to leave the damned or continue searching the pile of death for life to see a glimmer of hope He was truly alone He dreamt of better dreams maybe to finally achieve his one true goal to have everyone see the same thing all at once and rejoice at the sight of their creation So the days grew and it seemed that there was no change The love inside grew weary and lonesome He was to keep himself steady as loved ones perished It was war He turned in shame and began to run he wanted never to look back and relive their moment of self destruction Tears ran down his face as he ran faster He never wanted to stop running but to go as far as his legs took him His eyes were opened to the moon and he felt the cold rise through himself Elemental - The Calling Manuel Arbanassi, 2016-11-19 The nights of Jason a normal student at the New York University are tormented by images of ancient creatures and fierce battles But when dark signs appear on his skin he will have to embark on a journey along with five strangers Brought together by a shared destiny they ll face it under the guidance of a mysterious figure Leading the Calling Kathy Spencer, Ed.D., Lesley Eason, Ed.D., 2023-03-10 Educators are naturally viewed as reflective practitioners with time to think ponder vision and design being key to the art and craft of the role itself This is especially true of educational leaders teachers facilitators administrators and superintendents We know that we lead more effectively when practicing deep reflection demonstrating the desire to take action in order to serve others while honoring the greatness that exists in so many of our learning environments With deep reflection and action comes a lot of emotion a lot of conversations a lot of missteps and a lot of accomplishments It is these experiences that dictate the ultimate need to capture lessons learned One must understand that the lessons can provide a platform to assist one another in reaching higher addressing new challenges confidently persevering through extreme adversity and exploring opportunities never considered before as we all answer our own calling We consider the need for reflection by leaders as necessary to honor the past and to build a pathway to future success We find ourselves in unprecedented times in the world of educational leadership yet recognize that the principles and foundational pieces that have been a part of our work remain constant Embracing reflection allows us to honor the past while best serving in the unknown tumultuous and exciting future It creates the opportunity to unload and process our experiences while learning from one another We must provide a space that inspires others to engage in this during their leadership experiences This is the basis for our story The Calling of the Church in Times of Polarization, 2022-10-31 In many societies all over the world an increasing polarization between contrasting groups can be observed Polarization arises when a fear born of difference turns into us versus them thinking and rules out any form of compromise This volume addresses polarizations within societies as well as within churches and asks the question given these dynamics what may be the calling of the church The authors offer new approaches to polarizing debates on topics such as racism social justice sexuality and gender euthanasia and ecology and agriculture in various contexts They engage in profound theological and ecclesiological reflection in particular from the Reformed tradition Contributors to this volume are Najib George Awad Henk van den Belt Nadine Bowers Du Toit Jaeseung Cha David Daniels David Fergusson Jan Jorrit Hasselaar Jozef Hehanussa Allan Janssen Klaas Willem de Jong Viktoria Kczi n Philipp Pattberg Louise Prideaux Emanuel Gerrit Singgih Peter Ben Smit Thandi Soko de Jong Wim van Vlastuin Jan Dirk Wassenaar Elizabeth Welch Annemarieke van der Woude and Heleen Zorgdrager
