insolvency in arbitration within the application of the European Insolvency Regulation After a chapter on the relevant background theories the two main chapters of the book focus first on general issues that can arise in a domestic situation and second on problems particular to international cases of insolvency in arbitration The primary domestic perspective is the German one with abundant additional detail to fully embrace the international relevance of the discussion The author concludes with a number of considerations informed by practitioner feedback discussions throughout the work and as many arbitration case law examples as possible for tribunals dealing with insolvency in arbitration Based on a systematic application of arbitration and insolvency theory the book provides an all encompassing and holistic discussion from before an arbitration is started to after the award has been enforced In this way the book provides a one stop shop for practitioners both lawyers and arbitrators helping tribunals to navigate the treacherous waters of insolvency in arbitration

Faith in the Fog of War Chris Plekenpol, 2009-02-04 War Worn Faith You want the flare of your faith to burn as intensely as a fire on the battlefield That means digging into God s truth regardless of the chaos raging around you These devotions are written by a man who had considered war something that someone else always did and was then himself deployed to Iraq as a company commander From the frontlines of the blackest days and in the face of inexplicable suffering you ll discover the heart of the question Why God and its often unsettling answer Because in war as in contemporary America reality involves struggle trial and triumph Let God meet you in the midst of life s nonsense to find the peace that is a crucial part of His impeccable plan Why God War screams the same questions whispered in everyday life The battlefield explodes with the same tenacity of emotions that wretch our souls Smoke fills the air just as doubt clouds our minds Are you on the frontlines of war overseas Or perhaps your battle is personal deep within These devotions penned by Captain Chris Plekenpol while on the battlefield in Iraq expose the depths of inexplicable suffering as well as the heights of incredible victory in God Through every adversity and in any circumstance you will find a still voice reminding you of God s sovereignty in war and peace Faith forged in the crucible of combat Chris Plekenpol is a warrior and he has compiled a great guide for victory in the battles we all face Oliver L North Host of War Stories on Fox News and author of The Assassins There is no theory here Just the battle tested insights of a soldier who has learned to trust his heavenly Father in the valley of the shadow of death You are going to love this book Andy Stanley Pastor North Point Community Church Amazing encouragement from the heart of the battle Louie Giglio Passion Conferences Story Behind the Book I began writing devotionals as both a preparation for seminary and as a ministry tool during my service in Korea At first I sent them only to a few people Then as I wrote more frequently I received e mails requesting my devotions I continued writing during my deployment to Iraq tackling such issues as life in combat as well as the triumph of God in the battle My purpose in writing this book is to further God s work in my life by ministering to others through my experience in the heart of the battle Chris Plekenpol Psalms, The Journey Continues Mark Correll,2006-11
