The Canadian Global Almanac 1994 John Robert Colombo,1993-11 Measuring the Mosaic Rick

Helmes-Hayes,2010-01-28 Measuring the Mosaic is a comprehensive intellectual biography of John Porter 1921 1979 author of The Vertical Mosaic 1965 preeminent Canadian sociologist of his time and one of Canada's most celebrated scholars In the first biography of this important figure Rick Helmes Hayes provides a detailed account of Porter's life and an in depth assessment of his extensive writings on class power educational opportunity social mobility and democracy While assessing Porter's place in the historical development of Canadian social science Helmes Hayes also examines the economic social political and scholarly circumstances including the Depression World War II post war reconstruction the baby boom and the growth of universities that contoured Porter's political and academic views Using extensive archival research correspondence and over fifty original interviews with family colleagues and friends Measuring the Mosaic stresses Porter's remarkable contributions as a scholar academic statesman senior administrator at Carleton University and engaged practical public intellectual

Logics of Resistance Steve Dubb,2014-02-04 This study examines how unions representing telephone workers one in Mexico and one in British Columbia Canada have responded to changes in technology work organization and government policy stemming from the rise of a more global economy Some business writers have suggested that globalization will compel unions to cooperate with managers as workers are more exposed to international competition By analyzing the actual record of two unions in the highly internationalized telecommunications industry however a different picture emerges

Restructuring Public Schooling: Europe, Canada, America Rodney J. Reed, Fons van Wieringen, Stephen Lawton,Stephen B. Lawton,Rodney J. Reed, This volume offers an overview of educational restructuring its aims and possibilities in the European and North American context A conceptual analysis of educational policy systems and development in both continents is provided and empirical cases are presented within this framework Overviews are given of the national stage in Canada from several countries

Africa's Development in the Twenty-first Century Kwadwo Konadu-Agyemang,Martin Kwamina Panford,2006 Having been under colonial rule for the first half of the century by 1965 all but a handful of African countries had regained their independence and were poised to take off into an era of development However Africa now suffers from the most acute form of underdevelopment anywhere in the world Bringing together a broad selection of case studies covering a wide range of key issues this volume provides a multidisciplinary exploration of Africa's development opportunities and challenges into the twenty first century

Canadian Book Review Annual ,1994

Painting the Maple Veronica Jane Strong-Boag,1998 Painting the Maple explores the critical interplay of race and gender in shaping Canadian culture history politics and healthcare These interdisciplinary essays draw on feminist postcolonial and critical theory in a wide ranging discussion that encompasses both high and popular forms of culture the deliberation of policy and its execution and social movements as well as individual authors and texts The contributors who come from many fields establish connections among discourses of race gender and nation building that have conditioned the formation of Canada for more than one hundred years They analyze ways in which these elements have participated in and contributed to exclusionary practices and policies such as marginalization of women and racialized groups Together their essays paint a picture of a nation that privileges whiteness masculinity and Christianity This book gathers many insights on the construction of Canada hitherto scattered in the literature It will be of interest to feminist scholars and others concerned with issues of race and gender At times provocative Painting the Maple illuminates the challenges that lie ahead for all Canadians who aspire to create a better future in a reimagined nation
