Revisiting HIV/AIDS in French Culture Loïc Bourdeau,V. Hunter Capps,2022-03-07 This edited collection brings together scholarship from established and emerging scholars in HIV AIDS studies French studies Visual Arts and Dance As French writers and artists from the past five to ten years have been revisiting the AIDS crisis and its attendant cultural amnesia their work has brought about the necessity of foregrounding vulnerability exposure risk citizenship and trauma when considering disease By way of probing rawness and its varying iterations this volume gathers analyses of HIV AIDS productions from the 1980s to today in the service of excavating lessons learned by those living in proximity to disease These lessons provide important tools to understand and discuss both the ongoing HIV and SARS CoV 2 pandemics The volume thus highlights the specificities of the former while offering solutions on how to discuss and mitigate the latter How to Do The Three Bears with Two Hands Walter Minkel,2000 This book is for librarians and educators who truly want to hone their craft and become expert storytellers Walter Minkel offers instruction on staging puppet shows in the library creating characters writing scripts and building stages Illustrated Men's Book of Letters Adrian Truss,David Huband,Bruce Hunter,2018-12-03 What happens when you take three award winning improvisational comedians Illustrated Men and with the use of improvisational methods have them create a wild assortment of hilarious tales involving out of work hotel managers political impersonators and blind musicians flying dragons and dancing bears dashed Olympic dreams and mass alien abductions all wrapped together in the form of funny letters and their corresponding materials Read along through these streams of storytelling as David Huband Adrian Truss and Bruce Hunter weave an alternative reality that keeps you laughing and on your toes As you read you realize you are in the moment like the characters themselves and especially the writers who have no idea where the situations are going to go But because of the Men's ability to move like water in the final malaise Illustrated Men bring all the stories together for a glorious and hysterical finale Note Trump is only mentioned once You're welcome Video Source

Great Pages in History from the Wisconsin State Journal, 1852-2002 Frank Denton, 2002 This fascinating collection reproduces the most important front pages in the history of the Wisconsin State Journal newspaper from its first publication under that name on September 30 1852 to the current War on Terrorism See what Wisconsinites first read about Abraham Lincoln's election and assassination Custer's last stand against the Sioux the first votes by women Henry Ford's $5 daily wage the Saint Valentine's Day mob massacre in Chicago the disappearance of Amelia Earhart as she attempted to fly around the world and the war's elections crimes and social revolutions that have defined the past century and a half Each front page reproduced from the original is readable down to the smallest type In 2002 the Wisconsin State Journal celebrates its Sesquicentennial marking one hundred and fifty years of service to the people of Madison and the State of Wisconsin The newspaper had an earlier inception as the Madison Express in 1839 when Madison was a territorial town on the frontier and statehood was still nine years away Readers will notice the newspaper's appearance has changed nearly as much as have the methods of gathering the news and producing the paper But readers' fascination with and hunger for the news of each day remain strong

The Death Care Industry and Urban Gun Violence Melvin Delgado, 2025-08-03 This book provides a unique foundation upon which to view how the involvement of the death care sector offers a potential route to take in practice and research in reaching urban communities of color dealing with gun-related deaths Gun violence in the United States is a salient national problem with virtually no day that goes by without it occurring Where gun violence occurs in turn must be examined to facilitate understanding of how context influences the significance of the shooting In the case of this book the context is urban and death care sector funeral homes cemeteries and houses of worship Understanding how these settings shape public reactions help inform us as to how best to address this social and public health problem in the nation's urban centers and its consequences for communities The book addresses five interrelated goals that weave together a variety of themes to produce a vision and guidance needed for a new practice arena

- 1 ground readers in the latest statistical information on urban gun violence in this country
- 2 review existing approaches to preventing and intervening in community gun violence with a focus on cities
- 3 uplift the importance of the death care industry in meeting the needs of families and friends of gun victims
- 4 provide readers with details and insights into how funeral homes have expanded their vision of services to aid their community
- 5 provide readers with details and insights into how to develop collaborative projects with systems of care through a series of case illustrations and put forth community practice education and research recommendations for how best to prepare future practitioners wishing to work with the death care sector on other related community issues to better serve urban communities

The Death Care Industry and Urban Gun Violence is a must read for community psychologists social workers public health practitioners community educators
