ARCHAEOLOGY & SCIENCE

The background of the cover is a photograph of ancient rock art. It features several large, irregularly shaped rock surfaces with vibrant red ochre and green pigments. The pigments are applied in various patterns, including solid blocks, lines, and abstract shapes. The rock surfaces are light-colored, possibly limestone or sandstone, and show signs of weathering and cracking. The overall composition is a collage of these painted rock fragments, creating a textured and historical visual field.

Guidance on Inventory and Documentation of the Cultural Heritage John Bold,Ad hoc Group for Inventory and Documentation Within the Technical Co-operation and Consultancy Programme,Council of Europe. Directorate of Culture and Cultural Heritage,Council of Europe. Technical Co-operation and Consultancy Programme,2009-01-01 Improved heritage management and the inclusion of heritage in planning and sustainable development processes necessitate inventory and documentation More than mere scientific tools recommended in international agreements inventory and documentation play a strategic role The complexity of the heritage items that now have to be inventoried and their interaction with our everyday living environment require the clear definition and harmonisation of practices at the European level Through its work in the 1960s the Council of Europe helped to lay the methodological bases for inventorying architectural archaeological and movable heritage The efforts to systematise the process came in answer to the broadening meaning of heritage and today new considerations lead us to address such notions as heritage groups The guidelines proposed in this book reflect the work done so far and provide a basis for future research It is part of a series produced under the Technical Co operation and Assistance Programme to present the experience derived from the projects implemented by the Council of Europe Science and Technology in Historic Preservation Ray A. Williamson, Paul R. Nickens, 2012-12-06 Technology transfer has played an increasingly important role in historic preservation during the latter half of the twentieth century a situation attested to by the undertaking of an important congressional study in 1986 that assessed the role of federal agencies in the field In this book leading researchers update the earlier findings and contribute state of the art reviews and evaluations of technological progress in their areas of expertise
