Six Bob A Day Tourist:

German Anzacs and the First World War John Williams, 2003 By 1914 Australia's German immigrants were well regarded in their communities and made up after Irish and Scots the fourth largest white ethnic community in Australia This history traces the experience of the immigrants who enlisted for service in World War I and the difficulties they faced Our Corner of the Somme Romain Fathi, 2019-02-07 An analysis of the memorialisation of Australia's role in the Somme and the Anzac mythology that contributes to Australia's identity The British Empire and the First World War Ashley Jackson, 2017-06-26 The British Empire played a crucial part in the First World War supplying hundreds of thousands of soldiers and labourers as well as a range of essential resources from foodstuffs to minerals mules and munitions In turn many imperial territories were deeply affected by wartime phenomena such as inflation food shortages combat and the presence of large numbers of foreign troops This collection offers a comprehensive selection of essays illuminating the extent of the Empire's war contribution and experience and the richness of scholarly research on the subject Whether supporting British military operations aiding the British imperial economy or experiencing significant wartime effects on the home fronts of the Empire the war had a profound impact on the colonies and their people The chapters in this volume were originally published in Australian Historical Studies The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History First World War Studies or The Round Table The Commonwealth Journal of International Affairs Over the Top (Volume 3 of 3) (EasyRead Super Large 24pt Edition) , On The War-path Peter Pierce, Robin Gerster, 2016-10-18 This important anthology reveals the many ways in which going to war has formed a cultural bridge between Australia and the world From the Sudan in 1885 to Afghanistan in 2001 the connection of war to travel is illustrated in the observations of writers as varied as Banjo Paterson George Johnston Nancy Wake John Pilger Lily Brett and Peter Weir Selecting writings from combatants abroad as well as the reflections of sightseers who travel to foreign battlefields and war sites Robin Gerster and Peter Pierce reveal how the experience of war has both broadened and refined and sometimes distorted Australian views of the world Their lively collection crosses the boundaries between literature literary criticism travel writing war writing and cultural commentary Sisters in Peace Kate Laing, 2023-11-03 Is preparing for war the best means of preserving peace In Sisters in Peace Kate Laing contends that this question has never been solely the concern of politicians and strategists She maps successive generations of twentieth century women who were eager to engage in political debate even though legislative and cultural barriers worked to exclude their voices In 1915 during the First World War the Women's International Congress at The Hague was convened after alarmed and bereaved women from both sides of the conflict insisted that their opinions on war and the pathway to peace be heard From this gathering emerged the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom WILPF which to this day campaigns against militarism and nuclear weapons In Australia the formation of a section of WILPF connected political women to a worldwide network that sustained their anti war activism throughout the last century In examining the rise of

WILPF in Australia Sisters in Peace provides a gendered history of this country's engagement with the politics of internationalism This is a history of WILPF women who committed to peace activism even as Australia's national identity and military allegiances shifted over time a history that has until now been an overlooked part of the Australian peace movement

The Ghost at the Wedding Shirley Walker, 2011-05-24 In 1914 in the canefields of northern New South Wales the young men couldn't wait to set off for the adventure of war The women coped as best as they could raised the children lived in fear of being the next to receive an official telegram They grieved their dead and came to learn that for returned men there are worse things than death in combat They bore more children to replace those lost in the First World War and the sons were just the right age to go off to the second The Ghost at the Wedding is like no other account of war chronicling events from both sides the horror of the battlefields and the women who were left at home Shirley Walker's depictions of those battles Gallipoli the Western Front the Kokoda Track are grittily accurate their reverberations haunting Written with the emotional power of a novel here is a true story whose sorrow is redeemed by astonishing beauty and strength of spirit

Zero Hour Leon Davidson, 2010-03-01 The First World War was only meant to last six months When the Australians and New Zealanders arrived at the Western Front in 1916 the fighting had been going for a year and a half and there was no end in sight The men took their place in a line of trenches that spread through Belgium and France from the North Sea to the Swiss Alps Beyond the trenches was no man's land an eerie wasteland where rats lived in the ribs of the dead and the wounded cried for help Beyond that was the German Army The Anzacs had sailed for France to fight a war the whole world was talking about Few who came home ever spoke about it again Zero Hour is the third book by Leon Davidson author of the best selling and multi award winning Scarecrow Army the Anzacs at Gallipoli and Red Haze Australians New Zealanders in Vietnam

Letters from France Charles Edwin Woodrow Bean, 1917 From Gallipoli to the Skies Gillian Watch Whittall, 2014-09-09 Fred Reeve is a nineteen year old young man from Melbourne who dreams of flying He builds a Bleriot in his back yard but does not finish it as war breaks out in 1914 After he enlists he writes to his mother and family regularly and these letters give a poignant account of life for a young soldier who tries to understand love life and war and the expectation that every soldier should be a hero He is critical of training in Egypt and comments that thousands of Australians have been lost just because of inexperience no discipline While hospitalised in Egypt he hears of the experiences of the wounded at Gallipoli and a fellow in the next bed is the only non commissioned officer left alive in his battalion On the way to Gallipoli his ship is torpedoed and he spends many hours in the water before being rescued At Gallipoli he is in the Hell of fighting for five weeks before being evacuated After recuperation on Malta and in Oxford he finally achieves his dream of joining the Royal Flying Corps in 1916 His daredevil flying exploits are recounted in newspaper articles in both the USA and Australia He is flying on a mission in France when his aircraft comes down and he is killed
