The Opening Statement of the Prosecution in International Criminal Trials Sofia Stolk, 2021-04-19 This book addresses the discursive importance of the prosecution's opening statement before an international criminal tribunal Opening statements are considered to be largely irrelevant to the official legal proceedings but are simultaneously deployed to frame important historical events They are widely cited in international media as well as academic texts yet have been ignored by legal scholars as objects of study in their own right This book aims to remedy this neglect by analysing the narrative that is articulated in the opening statements of different prosecutors at different tribunals in different times It takes an interdisciplinary approach and looks at the meaning of the opening narrative beyond its function in the legal process in a strict sense discussing the ways in which the trial is situated in time and space and how it portrays the main characters It shows how perpetrators and victims places and histories are juridified in a narrative that whilst purporting to legitimise the trial the tribunal and international criminal law itself is beset with tensions and contradictions Providing an original perspective on the operation of international criminal law this book will be of considerable interest to those working in this area as well as those with relevant interests in International Transnational Law more generally Critical Legal Studies Law and Literature Socio Legal Studies Law and Geography and International Relations

Poetic Animals and Animal Souls R. Malamud, 2016-04-30 This book offers a new paradigm for reading and appreciating animals in literature and addresses how human culture views animals in poetry Part one sets up a theoretical overview and posits some aesthetic and ethical ideals for transposing animals into art while part two presents a more focused practical application of these ideals in one strain of animal poetry as seen in the works of Marianne Moore Jos Emilio Pacheco Gary Snyder Pattiann Rogers and others
