Special Kind Of Family:

A Different Kind of Perfect Cindy Dowling, Neil Nicoll, Bernadette Thomas, 2006-09-12 Every parent dreams of having a happy healthy child What happens when these dreams are shattered by a physical or cognitive disability A Different Kind of Perfect offers comfort consolation and wisdom from parents who have been there and are finding their way through The writings collected here are grouped into chapters reflecting the progressive stages of many parents emotional journeys starting with grief denial and anger and moving towards acceptance empowerment laughter and even joy Each chapter opens with an introduction by Neil Nicoll a child and family psychologist who specializes in development disorders

A Different Kind of Discipline Tony Humphreys, 1998-09-01 Discipline is a topical issue It safeguards our rights as individuals and without appearing to impacts all our relationships In this ground breaking book bestselling author and psychologist Dr Tony Humphreys addresses the many issues surrounding discipline in both the broad and immediate sense With his usual clarity he helps define areas that have become confused in our rapidly changing and expanding society A common misconception is that discipline applies only to children but it is as much an issue for adults as it is for young people It is not about controlling others Dr Humphreys points out instead it is about helping others to learn to control themselves Discipline demands creativity commitment and time It is about parents teachers carers and communities working as partners True discipline is not abusive aggressive cynical or manipulative It is about clear communication consistent application adaptability support and co operation Most of all it is about respect acceptance and love In A Different Kind of Discipline Dr Humphreys guides us through steps to create a positive environment in homes schools and communities where mutual respect and thus discipline all have their place

Intensive Family Therapy Ivan Boszormenyi-Nagy, James L. Framo, 2013-06-17 The chapters of this volume were written for the purpose of surveying the field of intensive family therapy The book is not a compilation of previously published articles all of the chapters are original contributions written at the request of the editors The structure of the volume was determined by the editors experience with family therapy and their continuous exchange with other workers in the field through symposia personal discussions and in most cases direct observation of their work

Enchantment and Intervention in Family Therapy Stephen R. Lankton, Carol H. Lankton, 2014-01-09 First published in 1986 Motivation is different for different cultures apparent even in the recent contrast between our experience of the relatively stable residential neighborhood and the shifting sands of the beach community The bait is different for each different fisher Each group has a goal determined by collective needs The needs of individual members of each group are defined by an interplay of biology personal history culture family values peers expected sanctions chronological age psychological age and environmental circumstances This book is a composite assemblage of teachings from five different workshops in the U S Primarily it has been created from what the author s feel are the most representative of several family therapy workshops they have conducted some individually and some together These took

Intervention Narratives Purnima Bose, 2020-01-17 Intervention Narratives examines the contradictory cultural representations of the US intervention in Afghanistan that help to justify an imperial foreign policy These narratives involve projecting Afghans as brave anti communist warriors who suffered the consequences of American disengagement with the region following the end of the Cold War as victimized women who can be empowered through enterprise as innocent dogs who need to be saved by US soldiers and as terrorists who deserve punishment for 9/11 Given that much of public political life now involves affect rather than knowledge feelings rather than facts familiar recurring tropes of heroism terrorism entrepreneurship and canine love make the war easier to comprehend and elicit sympathy for US military forces An indictment of US policy Bose demonstrates that contemporary imperialism operates on an ideologically diverse cultural terrain to enlist support for the war across the political spectrum Family Violence Cliff Roberson, Paul Harvey Wallace, 2016-08-04 Family Violence Legal Medical and Social Perspectives examines the entire spectrum of family violence focusing on social processes and social relationships The eighth edition is a
