Hard Times (And Other Stories) Charles Dickens,2014-02-26 When Hard Times appeared as a serial in Household Words in 1854 Dickens was about midway in his literary career In the same year this novel appeared in an octavo volume with a dedication to Thomas Carlyle Its purpose according to Dickens himself was to satirize those who see figures and averages and nothing else the representatives of the wickedest and most enormous vice of this time the men who through long years to come will do more to damage the really useful facts of Political Economy than I could do if I tried in my whole life The satire however like much that Dickens attempted in the same vein was not very bitter The characters in Hard Times are not numerous and the plot itself is less intricate than others by the same author The chief figures are Mr Thomas Gradgrind a man of realities with his unbounded faith in statistics Louisa his eldest daughter and Josiah Bounderby as practical as Mr Gradgrind but less kind hearted Louisa though many years younger than Mr Bounderby is persuaded by her father to marry him She is also influenced in making this marriage by her desire to smooth the path of her brother Tom a clerk in Mr Bounderby s office Though not happy she resists the blandishments of James Harthouse a professed friend of her husband s To escape him she has to go home to her father and this leads to a permanent estrangement between husband and wife In the mean time Tom Gradgrind has stolen money from Bounderby and to avoid punishment runs away from England

Goodbye My Love and Other Stories Marcus A. Stockton, 2017-11-16 There are two ways that a person can walk in this life You can either walk into your blessing or walk into your curse How can you do that You can do that by doing things that are natural for you to do Success at anything is not by chance or by luck It is seeing things you have already been doing brought to fruition Therefore successful people are not surprised by their success They actually knew it would happen before it happened The blessing is the reward for a life of integrity and commitment to achieving goals and setting standards What is the curse It is all the negatives that we curse our lives with the negative friends the negative conversations the negative situations An unsuccessful person who continues to put himself or herself in those situations in those conversations and around those people will bring a curse to their lives that they will never be able to shake I am grateful for the friends and the relationships that I have been blessed with in my life They have helped me to overcome all the obstacles of life And that is what any man needs incarcerated or freepeople who believe in him when no one else in the world does
