offers enhanced online resources for instructors and students      Speaking Skills for Teens Instructor Manual Gail A. Cassidy, 2020-07-21 Speaking Skills for Teens trains students to learn effective speaking skills and also motivates students to view themselves and their classmates in an optimistic manner Because they can find only positives in each talk given by their peers that is the way they start viewing each presenter even before the talk begins Through active participation students learn how to maximize their speaking skills their poise and their recognition of their own skills and abilities In addition to learning actual skills openings evidence closings body language and attitude training participants learn how to use their voice to produce the greatest effect They have the opportunity to practice being as they would like to be Participants will learn far more than speaking skills They learn how to take responsibility for how they feel how they act how they react The training allows them to see people in a more positive manner They learn how to read people and become aware of how they themselves are read Students evaluate every speaker in writing immediately after their talk Only positive comments are allowed for substance delivery or impact The teacher writes an area for improvement on a card and will add a positive statement immediately after each talk that only the speaker sees At the end of the course each student receives the evaluations from every classmate While participants may eventually forget facts and figures learned elsewhere they will retain much of what they master in this course because they will have constant opportunities to be on their feet and institute that which they have learned They will also have many opportunities to laugh cry and genuinely feel good perhaps the greatest way to solidify their learning      Effective Speech-language Pathology John R. Muma, 2014-03-05 This book is the first to summarize the voluminous literature on the development of cognitive codification language and expressive affective CCCE skills from a clinical standpoint Emphasizing the need to ground services in research and theory the author constructs three basic clinical models a conceptual model for understanding a descriptive model for formal assessment and a facilitative model for intervention These models have major implications for the work of all those who deal with CCCE problems in a professional capacity      Statistical Methods for Speech Recognition Frederick Jelinek, 2022-11-01 This book reflects decades of important research on the mathematical foundations of speech recognition It focuses on underlying statistical techniques such as hidden Markov models decision trees the expectation maximization algorithm information theoretic goodness criteria maximum entropy probability estimation parameter and data clustering and smoothing of probability distributions The author's goal is to present these principles clearly in the simplest setting to show the advantages of self organization from real data and to enable the reader to apply the techniques Bradford Books imprint      Communication in a Civil Society Shelley D.
