Speeches Of Cicero:

Political Speeches Cicero, 2006-03-09 Two things alone I long for first that when I die I may leave the Roman people free and second that each person's fate may reflect the way he has behaved towards his country Cicero 106-43 BC was the greatest orator of the ancient world and a leading politician of the closing era of the Roman republic This book presents nine speeches which reflect the development variety and drama of his political career among them two speeches from his prosecution of Verres a corrupt and cruel governor of Sicily four speeches against the conspirator Catiline and the Second Philippic the famous denunciation of Mark Antony which cost Cicero his life Also included are On the Command of Gnaeus Pompeius in which he praises the military successes of Pompey and For Marcellus a panegyric in praise of the dictator Julius Caesar These new translations preserve Cicero's rhetorical brilliance and achieve new standards of accuracy A general introduction outlines Cicero's public career and separate introductions explain the political significance of each of the speeches Together with its companion volume Defence Speeches this edition provides an unparalleled sampling of Cicero's oratorical achievements

The Speeches of Cicero Paul Lachlan MacKendrick, 1995 In this companion volume to his Philosophical Books of Cicero Paul MacKendrick provides detailed summaries of a representative sample of Cicero's speeches each followed by analytical sections on context law and rhetoric In the course of his career Cicero addressed many different audiences including the people the Senate the pontiffs jurors and in two cases Julius Caesar himself The selection also includes two examples of Ciceronian invective at its most biting Against Vatinius and Against Piso This fascinating examination of Cicero's art which includes copious notes and comprehensive indexes will be of great value to anyone with an interest in the Roman legal system or in the context and function of rhetoric in the Ancient World Jacket M. Cicero, the fragmentary speeches Marcus Tullius Cicero, Jane W. Crawford, 1994 Cicero: Catilinarians Marcus Tullius Cicero, 2008-04-10 As consul in 63 BC Cicero faced a conspiracy to overthrow the Roman state launched by the frustrated consular candidate Lucius Sergius Catilina Cicero's handling of this crisis would shape forever after the way he defined himself and his statesmanship The four speeches he delivered during the crisis show him at the height of his oratorical powers and political influence Divided between deliberative speeches given in the senate 1 and 4 and informational speeches delivered before the general public 2 and 3 the Catilinarians illustrate Cicero's adroit handling of several distinct types of rhetoric Beginning in antiquity this corpus served as a basic text for generations of students but fell into neglect during the past half century This edition which is aimed primarily at advanced undergraduates and graduate students takes account of recently discovered papyrus evidence recent studies of Cicero's language style and rhetorical techniques and the relevant historical background The Speeches of M. Tullius Cicero Against Catiline and Antony and for Murena
