The Feminist Difference Literature Psychoanalysis Race And Gender:

The Feminist Difference Barbara Johnson, 1998 Employing surprising juxtapositions THE FEMINIST DIFFERENCE looks at fiction by black writers from a feminist psychoanalytic perspective at poetry and at feminism and law The author presents an unfailingly close reading of moments at which feminism seems to founder in its own contradictions and moments that reemerge as sources of a revitalized critical awareness Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved

Deconstruction: A Reader Martin McQuillan, 2017-09-25 Philosophers do it literary critics do it even architects poets painters do it It can involve the concepts of capital politics and justice So what after all is deconstruction Deconstruction A Reader makes an answer to this question available in the only way possible by offering a selection of breathtaking range and depth of essential texts With more than sixty selections by fifty contributors including nine pieces by Jacques Derrida this is the ultimate anthology of deconstructive reading demonstrating that deconstruction is vivid surprising varied and true to the text

In the Dark Room Rosanna Maule, Julie Beaulieu, 2009 This book examines Duras's contribution to contemporary cinema The dark room in the collection's title refers to one of Duras's metaphors for the writing process la chambre noire as the solitary space of literary creation the place where she struggles to project her internal shadow onto the blank page The dark room is also a metaphor for the film theater and by extension for the filmic experience Duras rejected conventional forms of cinematic address that encourage the spectator to develop a positive identification with the film's diegesis and narrative Her films create unusual rapports between image and sound diegetic and extra diegetic elements and textual and intertextual dimensions of cinematic representation In doing so they allow the film spectator to establish new connections with the screen This collection focuses on the aesthetic conceptual and political challenges involved in Duras's innovative approach to cinematic representation from an interdisciplinary perspective including film and literary theory psychoanalytic analysis music theory gender studies and post colonial criticism The book opens with a theoretical introduction to Duras's cinematic practice and its peculiar position in contemporary cinema and contemporary film theory and is divided into five parts each one devoted to a specific aspect of Duras's films the interaction between literature and cinema Part One the reconfiguration of the cinematic gaze Part Two and of the image sound relation Part Three the representation of history and memory Part Four and of cultural identity Part Five

Reading in Detail Naomi Schor, 2013-10-18 Who cares about details As Naomi Schor explains in her highly influential book we do but it has not always been so The interest in detail in art in literature and as an aesthetic category is the product of the decline of classicism and the rise of realism But the story of the detail is as political as it is aesthetic Secularization the disciplining of society the rise of consumerism the invention of the quotidian have all brought detail to the fore In this classic work of aesthetic and feminist theory now available in a new paperback edition Schor provides ways of thinking about details and ornament in literature art and architecture and uncovering the unspoken but powerful ideologies that attached gender to details Wide ranging and richly argued Reading in Detail presents
