The Fame Machine Reviewing And Eighteenth Century Literary Careers:

Pope to Burney, 1714-1779 Moyra Haslett, 2017-03-14 This essential guide defines literature of the eighteenth century as a literature written and received as public conversation Moyra Haslett discusses and challenges conventional ways of reading the period particularly in relation to notions of the public sphere In her wide ranging study Haslett reads key texts including The Dunciad Gulliver's Travels and Pamela in their literary and cultural contexts and examines such genres as the periodical the familiar letter the verse epistle and the novel as textual equivalents of coterie culture Perspectives on

Prescriptivism Joan C. Beal, Carmela Nocera, Massimo Sturiale, 2008 The colloquium Perspectives on Prescriptivism 20 22 April 2006 was hosted by the University of Catania in Ragusa The organisers wished to encourage participants to look at linguistic prescriptivism from a wide range of perspectives Some of the questions raised are answered in this volume

Women and Literary History Katherine Binhammer, Jeanne Wood, 2003-05 The essays provide new research into women's literary history from the late seventeenth century to the Modernist period covering topics such as women's science and anti-slavery writing midwifery women and the novel and lesbian literary history Essays discuss the writing of Jane Sharp Jane Barker Anne Finch Aphra Behn Elizabeth Barrett Browning Harriet Jacob Phebe Lankester Pauline Johnson May Sinclair Amy Levy Edith Ellis and Amy Wilson Carmichael BOOK JACKET Community and Solitude Anthony W. Lee, 2019-04-22 Samuel Johnson's life was situated within a rich social and intellectual community of friendships and antagonisms Community and Solitude is a collection of ten essays that explore relationships between Johnson and several of his main contemporaries including James Boswell Edmund Burke Frances Burney Robert Chambers Oliver Goldsmith Bennet Langton Arthur Murphy Richard Savage Anna Seward and Thomas Warton and analyzes some of the literary productions emanating from the pressures within those relationships In their detailed and careful examination of particular works situated within complex social and personal contexts the essays in this volume offer a thick and illuminating description of Johnson's world that also engages with larger cultural and aesthetic issues such as intertextuality literary celebrity narrative the nature of criticism race slavery and sensibility Contributors Christopher Catanese James Caudle Marilyn Francus Christine Jackson Holzberg Claudia Thomas Kairoff Elizabeth Lambert Anthony W Lee James E May John Radner and Lance Wilcox Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press Novel Definitions Cheryl L. Nixon, 2008-12-30 Novel Definitions captures the lively critical debate surrounding the invention of the English novel showing how the rise of the novel is accompanied by a rise in popular literary criticism The over 135 pieces here many newly discovered include essays prefaces reviews and sermons written by authors ranging from Aphra Behn to Walter Scott Novel Definitions brings together authors commentary on their work debates concerning the novel's formal qualities and cultural position including who should read novels reviewers definitions of the qualities that make a novel successful and literary historians first attempts to write the history of the novel Men's Work L. Zionkowski, 2001-02-02 This book examines how the concept of the poet as a male professional emerged during the Restoration and eighteenth century Analyzing works by writers from Rochester to Johnson Linda Zionkowski argues that the opportunities for publication created by the growth of a commercial market in texts profoundly challenged aristocratic conceptions of authorship and altered the status of professional poets on the hierarchies of class and gender The book proposes that during this period discourse about the poet's social role both revealed and produced a crucial shift in configurations of masculinity the belief that commodifying their mental labor undermined writers cultural authority gave way to a celebration of the market's function as the proving ground for both literary merit and bourgeois manhood The Rhetoric of Literary Communication Virginie Iché, Sandrine

Sorlin, 2022-01-31 Building on the notion of fiction as communicative act this collection brings together an interdisciplinary range of scholars to examine the evolving relationship between authors and readers in fictional works from 18th century English novels through to contemporary digital fiction The book showcases a diverse range of contributions from scholars in stylistics rhetoric pragmatics and literary studies to offer new ways of looking at the author reader channel drawing on work from Roger Sell Jean Jacques Lecercle and James Phelan The volume traces the evolution of its form across historical periods genres and media from its origins in the conversational mode of direct address in 18th century English novels to the use of second person narratives in the 20th century through to 21st century digital fiction with its implicit requirement for reader participation The book engages in questions of how the author reader channel is shaped by different forms and how this continues to evolve in emerging contemporary genres and of shifting ethics of author and reader involvement This book will be of particular interest to students and scholars interested in the intersection of pragmatics stylistics and literary studies

Romantic Poets and the Culture of Posterity Andrew Bennett, 1999-12-02 This 1999 book examines the way in which the Romantic period's culture of posterity inaugurates a tradition of writing which demands that the poet should write for an audience of the future the true poet a figure of neglected genius can be properly appreciated only after death Andrew Bennett argues that this involves a radical shift in the conceptualization of the poet and poetic reception with wide ranging implications for the poetry and poetics of the Romantic period He surveys the contexts for this transformation of the relationship between poet and audience engaging with issues such as the commercialization of poetry the gendering of the canon and the construction of poetic identity Bennett goes on to discuss the strangely compelling effects which this reception theory produces in the work of Wordsworth Coleridge Keats Shelley and Byron who have come to embody for posterity the figure of the Romantic poet The Rise of the Novel Nicholas Seager, 2017-09-16 Why have scholars located the emergence of the novel in eighteenth century England What historical forces and stylistic developments helped to turn a disreputable type of writing into an eminent literary form This Reader's Guide explores the key critical debates and theories about the rising novel from eighteenth century assessments through to present day concerns Nicholas Seager Surveys major criticism on authors such as Aphra Behn Daniel Defoe Samuel Richardson Henry Fielding and Jane Austen Covers a range of critical approaches and topics including feminism historicism postcolonialism and print culture Demonstrates how critical work is interrelated allowing readers to discern trends in the critical conversation Approachable and stimulating this is an invaluable introduction for anyone studying the origins of the novel and the surrounding body of scholarship In Praise of Commercial Culture Tyler Cowen, 2000-04-14 Cowen argues that the capitalist market economy is a vital but underappreciated institutional framework for supporting a variety of artistic visions His philosophy stands in opposition to the cultural pessimism of conservatives neoconservatives the Frankfurt School and some versions of the political correctness and multiculturalist movements
