Her wit and charm made her the social as well as artistic hub around which Hollywood revolved during the 30s. She was years before her time in her sophistication and her independence established her as an oracle of the New Woman. She was an enchanting beauty and a great artist, the supreme comedienne during the high point of American film comedy. Larry Swindell vividly recreates her career and extraordinary personal life. Her fabled love affair and marriage with Clark Gable are here put into proper focus for the first time. Told by a master chronicler of the movies, this is a vibrant biography of the hometown girl who became one of the greatest stars of Hollywood's golden age.
