The Wind, the Fountain and the Fire Mark Barrett, 2019-12-12 The 2020 Lent Book from Bloomsbury explores the vivid imagery of the Psalms and the Gospels as a path into scriptural prayer Scripture and especially the Book of Psalms has always formed the substance of the daily prayer of Christian monks and nuns Monastic men and women spend more time among the scriptures each day than in most other activities How do such regular interactions with the texts of the Old and New Testaments help us renew our Christian imaginations how might these reflective encounters enable all of us to discover the wind of the Spirit the fountain of living water and the fire from which God speaks within the printed pages of our Bibles In The Wind the Fountain and the Fire Mark Barrett a Benedictine monk of Worth Abbey offers a Lenten pathway through scripture opening the gateway of sacred imagery as a mode of prayerful reflection For each week of Lent he has selected a different image the Dust the Mountain the Well the Light and the Tomb In these richly imagined biblical symbols we are invited to find keys which can unlock both our experience of scripture and our understanding of our own hearts *The Fire and the Fountain, Etc. Artificial Fire-Works Robert Jones, 2021-03-27 Excerpt I shall not pretend to say any thing here concerning the origin of Fireworks those who are willing to be better informed of that point may have recourse to the treatise of M F on that subject who has handled this point in a most elaborate manner and perhaps it may be no displeasing surprise to the reader to find that while he imagines himself only concerned about an invention which he could not have thought to have subsisted above 422 years he is carried gradually back to the age of Augustus and from thence to the time of the Trojan war It is sufficient for me that Fireworks have subsisted a long time and still continue to do so among the politest nations of both Europe and Asia I am very well aware that it may here be objected there are already treatises published on this subject and some of those voluminous ones but then those are either translations from the French and Italian authors or else they are very small abridgements and those little not of the art itself only on some particular branches of it      Fire and Water
