The First Of Australia:

Before the First Fleet to Australia John Gardiner, 2024-09-13 Most know the story of Australia's First Fleet But who were those convicts sailors marines and administrators who travelled to Botany Bay in 1787 And who orchestrated this ambitious expedition In his meticulously researched new book John Gardiner pulls back the curtain on the world from which the First Fleet emerged Delving into English newspapers official reports and government documents from the era Gardiner vividly captures the squalor of London's slums the rotting hulks on the Thames where prisoners languished and the hardscrabble lives of those who would people New South Wales We meet real life figures like Prime Minister William Pitt Home Secretary Lord Sydney and the Fleet's commander Captain Arthur Phillip And we discover a society rife with corruption violence and despair Before the First Fleet to Australia paints an unflinching portrait of late 18th century England in all its vulgarity and cruelty Gardiner's fearless account confronts historical truths often glossed over about the First Fleet's origins Was this ragged band of convicts a collection of pathetic vagabonds or part of a strategically calculated colonial enterprise Readers can decide for themselves in this absorbing and revelatory narrative history

Australia's First Campaign Robert Stevenson, 2021-02-03 The Australian campaign to seize German New Guinea in 1914 is one of the forgotten episodes of the First World War Preceding the Gallipoli landings by seven months this remarkably successful amphibious operation was the very first of its kind undertaken by the Royal Australian Navy and the Australian Army The campaign was also everything the Gallipoli campaign was not the New Guinea operations were planned and executed by Australian officers the fighting was short sharp and successful and it was a highly effective use of military force achieving its operational objectives at a remarkably low cost and serving Australian strategic interests in a direct and tangible way This volume of the Army History Unit's Campaign Series describes how a novice navy and army planned mounted and launched a complex joint operation over 3300 kilometres from their mounting base and defeated or forced the withdrawal of German naval and land forces posing a direct threat to Australia and New Zealand Australia's First Campaign presents a fresh examination of the evidence from a range of participants providing a thoroughly researched and readable account of the Australian military's first joint operation The volume is supported by more than 100 illustrations and includes a useful guide for those wishing to visit the battlefield today

Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific Islands since the First World War William S. Livingston, Wm. Roger Louis, 2014-09-12 Three forces dwindling British power rising American influence and nationalism in a variety of forms have transformed Australia New Zealand and the adjacent islands since 1919 In this volume some of the most distinguished scholars of the Pacific region assess these significant historical changes These essays deal with international relations politics changing social structures and literature since World War I The themes of the volume as a whole are social and humanistic they concern the evolution of both a regional identity and separate national identities in the Southwest Pacific The unique areal and thematic concentration of this book makes it essential reading for all those interested in the history politics and culture of the Pacific Australia's First Rotary Club Owen Parnaby,2002 The Rotary Club of Melbourne was the first of its kind in Australia Since its inaugural luncheon on 21 April 1921 the club has had an outstanding record of philanthropic endeavour and charity work as well as service to the cause of Rotary on the international scene The list of members of the early Melbourne club reads like a Who's Who of Australian businessmen since World War I In later years with the increase in the number of Melbourne based clubs not to mention the admission of women members in the late 1980s the range and interests of members was less concentrated leading to a greater diversity of activities The Melbourne club is now faced with changing social and economic conditions that are causing the breakdown of community cohesion The first Rotary Club was born out of a response to the competitive and harsh business environment of Chicago in 1905 The Melbourne club is responding to similar conditions by seeing them as an opportunity to expand the tradition of service
