Richardson,2013 Sir Eglamour of Artois, Ed. Frances E. Richardson. (E.E.T.S.,O.S,256). ,1965 Sir Eglamour of Artois, Edited by Frances E. Richardson ,1965 Four Middle English Romances Harriet Hudson,2006-11-01 Sir Isumbras Octavian Sir Eglamour of Artois and Sir Tryamour are important works in a major literary development of the fourteenth century the flourishing of Middle English popular romance These four narratives were among the most popular all survive in multiple manuscripts and continued to circulate in prints through the sixteenth century All were composed in the northeast Midlands in the fifty years between 1325 and 1375 and they appear together in several manuscripts The tale the romances tell of exiled queens orphaned children and penitent fathers was one of the most prevalent medieval stories Sometimes called the Constance Eustace legend after two well known pious versions its influence can be seen in numerous romances Of Giants Jeffrey Jerome Cohen,1999 "Sir Eglamour of Artois" and Its Dramatic Possibilities Lars Kenneth Hedlund,2013 Monstrous Fantasies Leila K. Norako,2024-08-15 Monstrous Fantasies asks why medieval romances reimagining the crusades ending in a Christian victory circulated in England with such abundance after the 1291 Muslim reconquest of Acre the last of the Latin crusader states in the Holy Land and what these texts reveal about the cultural anxieties of late medieval England Leila K Norako highlights the impact that the Ottoman victory and subsequent massacre of Christian prisoners at the battle of Nicopolis in 1396 had on intensifying the popularity of what she calls recovery romance These two episodes inspired a sense of urgency over the fate of the Holy Land and of Latin Christendom itself resulting in the proliferation of romances in which crusading English kings like Richard I and anachronistic legends like King Arthur not only reconquered Jerusalem but committed genocidal violence against the Muslims These romances which as Norako argues also influenced Geoffrey Chaucer s Canterbury Tales conjure fantasies of an ascendant global Christendom by rehearsing acts of conquest and cultural annihilation that were impossible to realize in the late Middle Ages Emphasizing the tension in these texts between nostalgia and anticipation that fuels their narrative momentum Monstrous Fantasies also explores how the cultural desires for European and Christian hegemony that recovery romances versified were revived in the wake of the so called wars on terror in the twenty first century in such films as Kingdom of Heaven and American Sniper The Matter of Identity in Medieval Romance Phillipa Hardman,2002 Twelve essays address a central concern of medieval romance the matter of identity Identity is a central concern of medieval romance Here it is approached through essays on issues of origin and parentage transformation and identity and fundamental questions of what constitutes the human The construction of knightly identity through education and testing is explored and placed in relation to female identity the significance of the motif of doubling is studied Shifting perceptions of identities are traced through the histories of specific texts and the identity of romance itself is the subject of several essays

discussing ideas of genre the overlap between romance and hagiography is a theme linking a number of articles in the collection Medieval romance is shown as a marketable commodity in the printed output of William Copland and as an opportunity for literary experimentation in the work of John Metham The texts discussed include Chevalere Assigne Sir Gowther Sir Ysumbras Beves of Hamtoun Robert of Cisyle the Fierabras romances Breton lays Thomas s Tristan and Marie de France s Eliduc Contributors W A DAVENPORT JOANNE CHARBONNEAU CORINNE SAUNDERS AMANDA HOPKINS MORGAN DICKSON MARIANNE AILES JUDITH WEISS JOHN SIMONS RHIANNON PURDIE MALDWYN MILLS A S G EDWARDS ROGER DALRYMPLE

Middle English Biblical Poetry Cathy Hume, 2021 A new analysis of the neglected genre of medieval Biblical poetry Medieval England had a thriving culture of rewriting the Bible in art drama and literature in Latin French and English Middle English biblical poetry was central to this culture and although these poems have suffered from critical neglect sometimes dismissed as mere paraphrase they are rich innovative and politically engaged Read in the same gentry and noble households as secular romance biblical poems borrow and adapt romance plots and motifs present romance inflected exotic settings and share similar concerns reputation order family and marriage This book explores six poems from the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries that retell episodes from the Old Testament the ballad like Jacob and Iosep two lives of Adam and Eve an alliterative version of the Susanna story the Pistel of Susan and the Gawain poet s Patience and Cleanness Each chapter identifies new sources and influences for the poems including from biblical glosses and manuscript illustration The book also investigates the poems relationships with contemporary cultures of literature and religion including with secular romance and offers new readings of each poem and its cultural functions showing how they bridge the chasm between medieval Christian England and the Jews and pagans of the pre Christian Mediterranean world It also considers reading contexts arguing that the poems and their manuscripts offer hints about the social class and gender of their household audiences

The Seven Champions of Christendom (1596/7) Richard Johnson, 2017-11-01 This book was published in 2003 Although Richard Johnson s chivalric romance The Seven Champions of Christendom is little known today it was widely read for over three centuries after its first appearance in print in the 1590s influencing the work of English writers from John Bunyan to G K Chesterton and profoundly affecting the representation of St George England s patron saint in folklore and popular culture In this volume Jennifer Fellows offers a scholarly edition of the work

Robert Thornton and His Books Susanna Fein, Michael Robert Johnston, 2014 Essays examining the compiler and contents of two of the most important and significant extant late medieval manuscript collections The Yorkshire landowner Robert Thornton c 1397 c 1465 copied the contents of two important manuscripts Lincoln Cathedral MS 91 the Lincoln manuscript and London British Library MS Additional 31042 the London manuscript in the middle decades of the fifteenth century Viewed in combination his books comprise a rare repository of varied English and Latin literary religious and medical texts that survived the dissolution of the monasteries when so many other medieval books were destroyed Residing in the texts he copied and used are many indicators of what this gentleman scribe of the North Riding read how he practised his religion and what worldly values he held for himself and his family Because of the extraordinary nature of his collected texts Middle English romances alliterative verse the alliterative Morte Arthure only exists here lyrics and treatises of religion or medicine editors and scholars have long been deeply interested in uncovering Thornton's habits as a private amateur scribe The essays collected here provide for the first time a sustained focussed light on Thornton and his books They examine such matters as what Thornton as a scribe made how he did it and why he did it placing him in a wider context and looking at the contents of the manuscripts
