John Ashbery and American Poetry David Herd, 2024-07-30 David Herd sets out to provide readers with a new critical language through which they can appreciate the beauty and complexity of Ashbery's writing Presenting the poet in all his forms avant garde nostalgic sublime and camp the book argues that the perpetual inventiveness of Ashbery's work has always been underpinned by the poet's desire to write the poem fit to cope with its occasion Tracing Ashbery's development in the light of this idea and from its origins in the dazzling artistic environment of 1950's New York the book evaluates his poetry against the aesthetic literary and historical backgrounds that have informed it The story of a brilliant career and a history of the period in which that career has taken shape John Ashbery and American Poetry provides a compelling account of Ashbery's importance to Twentieth Century Literature

Underground Passages Jesse Cohn, 2015-01-26 An exhaustive study of the richly textured resistance culture anarchists create to sustain their ideals and identities amid everyday lives defined by capital and the state a culture prefiguring a post revolutionary world and allowing an escape from domination even while enmeshed in it Whether discussing famous artists like Kenneth Rexroth John Cage and Diane DiPrima or relatively unknown anarchist writers Jesse Cohn clearly links aesthetic dynamics to political and economic ones This is cultural criticism at its best Jesse Cohn is the author of Anarchism and the Crisis of Representation Hermeneutics Aesthetics Politics and an associate professor of English at Purdue University North Central in Indiana

Research in Education, 1972 Edge of the Screen Murray Pomerance, 2024-11-14 This book is a series of seventeen meditations that revolve around the notion of the viewer's placement at the edge of the screen Every page is an opportunity to think about an aspect of film or of film viewing in new ways and to begin reconsidering deeply ingrained ways of unthinkingly characterizing and accounting for what it is that we watch when we watch a film what happens to us and how we make sense of and appreciate it This volume follows from three others by the author Virtuoso Film Performance and the Actor's Magic 2020 The Film Cheat Cinematic Artifice and Viewing Pleasure 2021 and Uncanny Cinema Agonies of the Viewing Experience 2022 All of these including Edge of the Screen meander and interrogate cinema as we watch it both connecting us to and disconnecting us from the moment of pleasure Each meditation is characterized by a deep penetration of the inquiring continually hungry authorial mind and a very extensive set of analyses of filmic moments from myriad films including 2001 A Space Odyssey Memento Zabriskie Point An American in Paris Planet of the Apes 1968 Superman 1978 Possessed The Jungle Book 1942 The Spy Who Came In from the Cold The Toll of the Sea Rope and numerous others These meditations are careful and philosophical as much as energetically ruminative yet are written in an accessible style for all interested readers who both love cinema and wonder about that love Each chapter can stand alone even though all work together to challenge perspectives on what we encounter experience think and feel when we watch films Across its chapters Edge of the Screen takes on a wide range of topics the ontology of film the relation between characters actors and the figures who appear onscreen film s relationships to the other arts especially painting but also novels and theatre the passage of time in film and its momentary character film criticism including deeply held values such as coherence film s relationship to mortality and more Resources in Education ,1972 Jayne Cortez, Adrienne Rich, and the Feminist Superhero Laura Hinton,2016-03-25 One a lyric confessional poet and essayist the other a jazz spoken word performance artist Adrienne Rich and Jayne Cortez were American feminist superheroes who produced extensive bodies of poetic work that reveal strangely overlapping visions but in radically different voices and poetic styles This book reconsiders the poetry activism of Cortez and Rich side by side engaging poetics theory cultural studies and popular media in its literary analyses A collection of eight integrated chapters by multiple poetry critics as well as an artist statement narrative by Wonder Woman sculptor Linda Stein the book focuses upon the voice of bravado the various calls for global justice and Third Wave feminist intersectional critiques all embodied within these two women s poetic texts The book also examines the twentieth century figure of the American superhero particularly Wonder Woman bringing popular culture studies into conversation with literary criticism as well as visual art through the inclusion of Stein s commentary and illustrations This beautiful and compelling book experiments with the festschrift concept by inviting multiple and competing disciplinary views on U S feminist poetics women s art and aesthetics racial and sexual identities as well as politics and performance all in tribute to the power of poetry by Cortez and Rich Hot Equations Jesse S. Cohn,2024-04-23 Inspired by the new diversity of science fiction fantasy and horror in the twenty first century Hot Equations Science Fantasy and the Radical Imagination on a Troubled Planet confronts the kinds of literary and political realism that continue to suppress the radical imagination Alluding both to the ongoing climate catastrophe and to Tom Godwin s The Cold Equations that famous touchstone of hard science fiction Hot Equations reads the crises of our post normal moment via works that increasingly subvert genre containment and spill out into the public sphere Drawing on archives and contemporary theory author Jesse S Cohn argues that these imaginative works of science fiction fantasy and horror strike at the very foundations of modernity calling its basic assumptions into question They threaten the modern order with a simultaneously terrible and promising anarchy pointing to ways beyond the present medical ecological and political crises of pandemic climate change and rising global fascism Examining books ranging from well known titles like The Hunger Games and The Caves of Steel to newer works such as Under the Pendulum Sun and The Stone Sky Cohn investigates the ways in which science fiction fantasy and horror address contemporary politics social issues and more The cold equations that established normal life in the modern world may be in shambles Cohn suggests but a New Black Fantastic makes it possible for the radical imagination to glimpse viable possibilities on the other side of crisis Music As Episteme, Text, Sign, and Tool Zachar Laskewicz, 2003 The primary intention of this work is to present a set of alternative approaches to musicality where the object of analysis is the process of music making rather than the product or end result It uses as its source the concept of musicality as a way of comprehending reality rather than as a static reflection of it and Balinese music is the main cultural example Theatre Across Borders Abhishek Majumdar, 2023-03-09 Is there a fundamental connection between New York's Elevator Repair Service's 9 hour production of The Great Gatsby and a Kathakali performance How can we come to appreciate the slowness of Kabuki theatre as much as the pace of the Whatsapp theatre of post Arab Spring Turkey Can we go beyond our own culture's contemporary definition of a good play and think about the theatre in a deep and pluralistic manner Drawing on his extensive experience working with theatre artists students and thinkers across the globe up to and including an hour long audience with the Dalai Lama playwright Abhishek Majumdar considers why we make theatre and how we see it in different parts of the world His own work has taken him from theatre in Japan to dance companies in the Philippines writers in Lebanon and Palestine theatre groups in Burkina Faso war torn areas like Kashmir and North Eastern India and to China and Tibet Argentina and Mexico Via a far reaching and provocative collection of essays that is informed by this wealth of experience Majumdar explores how different cultures conceive theatre and how the norm of one place is the experiment of another the ways in which theatre across the world mirrors its socio political and philosophical climate how for thousands of years theatre has been a tool to both disrupt and to heal and how even within the many differences there are universals from which we can all learn and how theatre does cross borders Of interest to theatre makers everywhere be they writers actors directors or designers this book offers an oversight as well as interrogation into the place of theatre in the world today Catalog of Copyright Entries. Unfettering Poetry J. Robinson, 2006-04-29 This book calls attention to the pervasive but largely unacknowledged poetics of the Fancy evident in poetry written during the British Romantic period These poetics Robinson demonstrates are an early nineteenth century version of what will become the visionary experimental open form poetics of the twentieth century

Teaching Later British Literature Albert D. Pionke, 2019-04-05 Designed for both first time teachers of survey courses in later British literature and more experienced instructors seeking a new way to approach familiar material Teaching Later British Literature seeks to recapture the interconnectedness within and among Romantic Victorian and Modern literature Focusing on some of the defining historical intellectual and artistic preoccupations that individual works explore in common with their literary peers the book also invites teachers to help their students to rethink the criteria by which periods are defined and to reconceive the relationship between texts written within these periods Teaching Later British Literature is suitable for reading alongside any of the anthologies used in courses that survey the second half of British literature from the advanced high school classroom to the lower division university lecture hall and seeks to complement their already robust content by offering teachers a synthetic and highly adaptable framework for guiding students through British literary history from the 1780s through the 1940s
