Speaking Of Stendhal:

Speaking of Stendhal Storm Jameson, 2011-10-28 Storm Jameson writes of Stendhal as one speaks in suitable company of a friend She knew him very well Over the years she read everything available by him and she immersed herself in his life and his writings and the two cannot be separated As a biographical subject Stendhal is vastly more rewarding than many literary figures Something was forever happening to him usually another passionate love affair Life at home in his youth was a smouldering battle ground he hated his father and when he rejoiced at the execution of Louis XVI be sure Storm Jameson adds that another head glimmered in his mind There was his naively close relationship with his sister Pauline whom however he later outgrew so that he would do anything he could for her except live with her There was his brief but horrifying experience of Napoleon s wars And of course there was his passion for travel for society for the opera for Italy It all became part of the texture of his books What is so astonishing is that his contemporaries were unconscious of his genius even his old friend Merimee patronised him as a failure Posterity has set that right and this study so lucidly and perceptively written and providing so many insights gives a marvellously concise picture of a rich and varied life Merleau-Ponty In Contemporary Perspectives P. Burke, J. van der Veken, 2012-12-06 Merleau Ponty in contemporary perspective this was the theme of the conference at the Institute of Philosophy Katholieke Universiteit Leuven K U L from 29 November to 1 December 1991 Thirty years after Merleau Ponty s untimely death it seemed appropriate to bring together scholars from Europe and from the United States of America to reappraise his philosophy In fact a significant body of scholarship has emerged which would seem to attest to the continuing importance of his thought for a variety of disciplines within the humanities the social sciences and the philosophy of nature In the present volume Gary Brent Madison addresses the issue whether Merleau Ponty can be considered to be a classical philosopher The fact that his work is one of the highlights of the phenomenological tradition and is of continuing inspiration for researchers in various domains seems to justify that claim Yet it is the feeling of many of the contributors to this volume that the so called second Merleau Ponty is still not really known The unfinished state of The Visible and the Invisible and the cryptic condition of many of the Working Notes may be responsible for that More research should be done to uncover the unsaid of Merleau Ponty owe to a remark of Paul Ricoeur in his introduction to the work of G B Madison La Phenomenologie de Merleau Ponty Une recherche des limites de la conscience Paris Klincksieck 1973 p Life in the Writings of Storm Jameson Elizabeth Maslen, 2014-09-30 Margaret Storm Jameson 1891 1986 is primarily known as a compelling essayist her stature as a novelist and champion of the dispossessed is largely forgotten In Life in the Writings of Storm Jameson Elizabeth Maslen reveals a figure who held her own beside fellow British women writers including Virginia Woolf anticipated the Angry Young Women such as Doris Lessing and was an early champion of such European writers as Arthur Koestler and Czes aw Mi osz Jameson was a complex character whose politics were grounded in social justice she was passionately antifascist her novel In the Second Year 1936 raised the alarm about Nazism

but always wary of communism An eloquent polemicist Jameson was as president of the British P E N during the 1930s and 1940s of invaluable assistance to refugee writers Elizabeth Maslen s biography introduces a true twentieth century hedgehog whose essays and subtly experimental fiction were admired in Europe and the States Narrative and Drama Olga Ragusa,2020-10-26 No detailed description available for Narrative and Drama Fiction in French - Fiction in Soviet British Library,2013-02-07 No detailed description available for Fiction in French Fiction in Soviet Musicology and Difference Ruth A. Solie,2023-11-15 Addressing Western and non Western music composers from Francesca Caccini to Charles Ives and musical communities from twelfth century monks to contemporary opera queens these essays explore questions of gender and sexuality Musicology and Difference brings together some of the freshest and most challenging voices in musicology today on a question of importance to all the humanistic disciplines Addressing Western and non Western music composers from Francesca Caccini to Charles Ives and musical communities from twelfth century monks to contemporary opera queens these essays explore questions of gender and sexuality Musicology and Differen In Search of Speech Jean-Yves Lacoste,2024-10-17 Jean Yves Lacoste is one of the best known French philosophers alive today Along with Jean Luc Marion Jean Louis Chr tien and Michel Henry Lacoste is hailed as a leading figure in the revival of French phenomenology in its engagement with Christian theology In this highly readable and stylish translation by Oliver O Donovan Lacoste s In Search of Speech considers how linguistic events are precisely what enable us to escape the threat of nihilism and to survive in a world now cynically regarded as having entered a phase of post truth In recent decades language has been reduced by various philosophers both Anglo American and European in treatments that render it abstract flat or distant from life In Search of Speech seeks to do justice to speech in the various ways in which we perform it and in which it confronts us as one or more events Speech always occurs in the world it makes things present to us or it makes them absent from us Speaking reading and even being silent are never wholly free from anxiety babble boredom humour and concern for others Liturgical speech deserves particular attention and even here speech is in danger for speech can conceal as well as reveal Lacoste begins with very weak assumptions and slowly using many examples and clarifying as he goes along builds up a rich picture of human speech and the forces that seek to drain it of meaning CliffsNotes on Stendhal's The Red and the Black D. L. Gobert,1999-03-03 This CliffsNotes guide includes everything you ve come to expect from the trusted experts at CliffsNotes including analysis of the most widely read literary works The Consecration of the Writer, 1750-1830 Paul Bänichou,1999-01-01 The Consecration of the Writer is the definitive study of the first stages of a phenomenon that has profoundly affected world literature the process by which modern writers ceased to speak as representatives of some religious or political power and instead seized the mantle of spiritual authority in their own right speaking directly to and in the name of humanity Paul B nichou identifies three great moments in this process the advent of the Enlightenment faith in philosophy and the rise of its literary concomitant the man of letters the literary creations of the counterrevolution and their surprising involvement in the elevation of the status of poetry and finally the fusion of these tendencies in the early phases of romanticism in France B nichou deepens our understanding of romanticism by showing that it was a revision of the Enlightenment faith rather than a reaction against it The extraordinary depth of B nichou s research the originality of his conclusions and the importance of his methodological reflections make this study an essential reference in the contemporary return to literary history Russia Lyman H. Legters,2025-01-27 Stendhal's Less-Loved Heroines Maria C. Scott,2017-12-02 Stendhal s most independent heroines are usually disliked or marginalized by critics However when gender neutral criteria are applied Mina de Vanghel Vanina Vanini Mathilde de La Mole and Lamiel can all be shown to enact extraordinary experiments in freedom These experiments are all the more remarkable in view of the gender of their agents the historical situation of the author 1783 1842 and the conventions of the literary movement that his fiction helped to found realism Simone de Beauvoir s 1949 study of Stendhal s heroines gives preference to the reserved females over his Amazons But existentialism as a philosophy of freedom also enables a reading of the self determining heroines that acknowledges the superiority of their choices their resistance and counter plots their paradoxical authenticity their rejection of seriousness and their assumption of responsibility for the routes they plot The Oxford Handbook of European Romanticism Paul Hamilton,2016-01-14 TThe Oxford Handbook to European Romanticism brings together leading scholars in the field to examine the intellectual literary philosophical and political elements of European Romanticism The book focuses on the cultural history of the period extending from the French Revolution to the uprisings of 1848 It begins with a series of chapters examining key texts written by major writers in languages including French German Italian Spanish Russian Hungarian Greek and Polish amongst others A second section then explores the naturally inter disciplinary quality of Romanticism exemplified by the different discourses with which writers of the time set up an internal comparative dynamic These chapters highlight the sense a discourse gives of being written knowledgeably against other pretenders to completeness or comprehensiveness of self understanding of the time Discourses typically advance their own claims to resume European culture collaborating with and at the same time trying to assimilate each other in the process The main examples featured here are history geography drama theology language philosophy political theory the sciences and the media Each chapter offers an original and individual interpretation of an inherently comparative world of individual writers and the discursive idioms to which they are historically subject Together the forty one chapters provide a comprehensive and provocative overview of European Romanticism Intersemiotic Perspectives on Emotions Susan Petrilli,Meng Ji,2022-07-29 This edited volume explores emotion and its translations through the global world from a variety of different perspectives as a personal socio cultural ideological ethical and political even business investment in the latest phases of globalisation Emotions are powerful in engaging or disengaging individuals communities the masses peoples and nations with distinct linguistic and cultural backgrounds for good but also for evil All depends on how emotions are interpreted that is translated in words or in facts in any case in signs Semiotic reflection on emotions and their interpretation translation is thus of essential importance An adequate understanding of emotional phenomena and their complexities calls for different views which together reveal and illustrate inconsistencies in our modern life The contributors argue that an investigation of types of emotional translation linguistic and non linguistic audio visual theatrical literary racial legal architectural political and so forth can contribute to a better understanding of emotions and how they are exploited to engender injustice unfairness absurdity in contemporary life Nonetheless emotions are also exploited and oriented and this is the intent of our authors to favour the development of sustainable multicultural societies and facilitate living together A major reference for students and scholars in translation semiotics language and cultural studies around the world Imagery and Ideology

William J. Berg, 2007 Literature is ostensibly a sequential and thus temporal medium and painting a static and spatial one yet writers like George Sand and Emile Zola have attempted repeatedly to represent visual and spatial phenomena in literary texts just as painters like Eugene Delacroix and Claude Monet have sought consistently to capture effects of time and movement on canvas The incorporation of elements from one artistic medium into another creates a dynamic interplay of image and ideology both between art forms and within individual texts and paintings which constitutes the crux of this book Each chapter involves the detailed analysis of a text and a painting related through topic theme and technique By juxtaposing the works of ten major writers and ten painters of comparable stature the book explores the various modalities and layers of meaning in nineteenth century French art both verbal and visual and proposes ways of reading the ambivalent artifacts of modernity Illustrated Music Writing Literature, from Sand via Debussy to Derrida Peter Dayan, 2017-07-05 Why does poetry appeal to music Can music be said to communicate as language does What between music and poetry is it possible to translate These fundamental questions have remained obstinately difficult despite the recent burgeoning of word and music studies Peter Dayan contends that the reasons for this difficulty were worked out with extraordinary rigour and consistency in a French literary tradition echoed by composers such as Berlioz and Debussy which stretches from Sand to Derrida Their writing shows how it is both necessary and futile to look for music in poetry or for poetry in music necessary because each art defines itself by reference to what it is not and cannot be in order to point to an idealized totality outside itself futile because the musicality of poetry like the poetic meaning of music must remain as elusive as that idealized totality its distance is the very condition of the art Thus is generated a subtle but unmistakable general definition of the nature of art which has proved uniquely able to survive all the probings of poststructuralism That definition of art is inseparable from a disturbingly effective scepticism towards all forms of explication and explanation in critical discourse so it is doubtless not surprising that critics in general have done their best to ignore it But by bringing out what Sand Baudelaire Mallarm Proust Debussy Berlioz Barthes and Derrida all do in the same way as they work on the limits of the analogy between music and literature this book shows how it is possible productive illuminating and fascinating to work on those limits though to do so as we find repeatedly in Chopin's dreams as in Derrida's tombeaux requires us to have the courage to face in music our literal death and the limits of our intelligence

Margaret Storm Jameson Jennifer Birkett, 2009-03-19 The life story of Margaret Storm Jameson 1891-1986 prolific novelist and political activist In her time Jameson gained international recognition for her writing and for her wartime work as President of PEN fighting for freedom and social justice while rescuing refugees from Nazi Europe and British internment camps

Speaking With the Dead Jurgen Pieters, 2019-08-06 This book deals with the special power of literary texts to put us in contact with the past A large number of authors coming from different ages have described this power in terms of the conversation with the dead when we read these texts we somehow find ourselves conducting a special kind of dialogue with dead authors The book covers a number of texts and authors that make use of this metaphor Petrarch Machiavelli Sidney Flaubert Michelet Barthes In connecting these texts and authors in novel ways Jurgen Pieters tackles the all important question of why we remain fascinated with literature in general and with the specific texts that to us are still its backbone Situated in the aftermath of New Historicism the book challenges the idea that literary history as a reading practice stems from a desire to speak with the dead

Key Features Offers a broad survey a combination of classical literature Renaissance literature and modern theory and history Issues a plea for the importance of reading literary texts and the power of literature Discusses key figures from the Western canon Homer Virgil Dante Machiavelli in light of the idea that we can learn from the past by talking to the dead Combines theoretical discussions of the relationship between literature and history with close reading of works by major literary authors and historians

The American Enemy Philippe Roger, 2006-11 Georges Louis Buffon an eighteenth century French scientist was the first to promote the widespread idea that nature in the New World was deficient in America which he had never visited dogs don't bark birds don't sing and by extension humans are weaker less intelligent and less potent Thomas Jefferson infuriated by these claims brought a seven foot tall carcass of a moose from America to the entry hall of his Parisian hotel but the five foot tall Buffon remained unimpressed and refused to change his views on America's inferiority Buffon as Philippe Roger demonstrates here was just one of the first in a long line of Frenchmen who have built a history of anti Americanism in that country a progressive history that is alternately ludicrous and trenchant The American Enemy is Roger's bestselling and widely acclaimed history of French anti Americanism presented here in English translation for the first time With elegance and good humor Roger goes back 200 years to unearth the deep roots of this anti Americanism and trace its changing nature from the belittling as Buffon did of the savage American to France's resigned dependency on America for goods and commerce and finally to the fear of America's global domination in light of France's thwarted imperial ambitions Roger sees French anti Americanism as barely acquainted with actual fact rather anti Americanism is a cultural pillar for the French America an idea that the country and its culture have long defined themselves against Sharon Bowman's fine translation of this magisterial work brings French anti Americanism into the broad light of day offering fascinating reading for Americans who care about our image abroad and how it came about Mr Roger almost single handedly creates a new field of study tracing the nuances and imagery of anti Americanism in France over 250 years He shows that far from being a specific reaction to recent American policies it has been knit into the very substance of French intellectual and cultural life His book stuns with its accumulated detail and analysis Edward Rothstein New York Times A brilliant and exhaustive guide to the history of French Ameriphobia Simon Schama New Yorker Politicians & Moralists of the Nineteenth Century Émile Faguet,1928 Essay Backgrounds for Writing and Speaking Anthony Faulkner Blanks,1929
