Special People:

101 Saints and Special People Vera Schaubert, Michael Schindler, 2003 A Sensory Curriculum for Very Special People Flo Longhorn, 2011-09-12 This uniquely valuable book arose from the author's work with profoundly disabled children in a special needs school. The sensory impairment of the children meant that they were unable to learn from traditional teaching methods as they were unaware of the world around them. Our very first awareness of our surroundings and ourselves come through our senses of smell, touch, taste, sight, hearing, and movement, and without them we are isolated. To benefit from the normal school curriculum, children with sensory impairment must learn to develop each of their senses individually and in combination. A process the non-handicapped child goes through spontaneously and unconsciously. This book outlines a curriculum for each of the senses in turn, using stimuli that can be varied to suit the age of the child or young person. Demonstrating how these can be combined to create a multisensory experience and how this newly developed awareness can be integrated into the rest of the school curriculum. This book was developed from the author's work with profoundly disabled children; their sensory impairment meant that traditional teaching was unsuccessful as they were unaware of the world around them. Flo Longhorn sets out a curriculum for developing each sense both individually and in combination, using stimuli that can be varied according to the age of the child. This book shows how these techniques can be amalgamated to create multisensory experiences and how this new awareness can be integrated into the rest of the school curriculum. Designed for teachers and parents of children with profound multiple disabilities combined with sensory and physical impairment, this has become a classic work. Robert and Many Other Special People Joseph B. Frederick Ph.D., 2023-09-11 The direction of this book is to cover the years I spent in the world of work and my associated private life at that time. To say that my years working in my career were enjoyable and challenging would be an understatement. My private life was also enjoyable and challenging. My life in these years was in many ways a mystery. As you read, you will see many eventful happenings and energy whose base was my God and Savior. It is my hope that Robert and Many Other Special People will be a book as good as the books People Me and God Keeps On Giving. I'd Rather Be Sorry Dottie Lou Bolme, 2010-06-30 Many changes occur as Dottie after six years single tries to adjust to sharing a life with an over achieving not so faithful spouse Except for a Minneapolis 8 track recording endeavor and a weekly guest shot on a local TV show Arrowhead Country it seems Dottie's career is in a slump placed on a back burner The new marriage pressures many new demands flooding the scenario Precious time is diverted to family taking the spotlight away from music Teen age undisciplined upheavals arise as do snowmobiling excursions camping trysts race track diversions putting stress on limited time slots A Paris France adventure with a brief appearance in a French Band revitalized Dottie's passion for her career and she returns with renewed passion for life but less for marriage Priorly in her adamant testimony of her moralizing self righteous virtues Dottie is now forced to EAT CROW as she joins the coterie of the Angels Flying too Close to the Ground at the Gopher Peyton Place The Result An intriguing blurr on a downhill glide in a new direction to infidelity Fervent impetuous Passion and Euphoric Ecstasy

In the Shadow of Angels Susan Breiddal, 2021-11-09 You people are angels This is how many respond to those who work in palliative care How hospice care professionals manage the emotional tension of being surrounded by sick dying and grief stricken people is unfathomable Over her 20 years of work as a hospice counsellor author Dr Breiddal has collected stories of how ordinary people face death and dying In this living body of work she reveals the skills needed along with the struggles and rewards of providing hospice care Bridging memoir and creative nonfiction she weaves together theory and practice in the service of the dying and their families Breiddal aims to make the often strange reality of death accessible through an intimate raw and realistic portrayal of the art of providing loving end of life care Admittedly being called to this work is to be pulled out of everyday life which requires a willingness to have one's sense of safety and familiarity challenged to be off balance to surrender to uncertainty change discomfort and growth Encouraging a relational way to encounter mortality she offers hope that caring for the dying and bereaved is a paradoxical opportunity to open up to life By entwining her personal and professional experiences the author presents a timely primer for readers who are facing the death of their loved ones their own death or are bereaved Additionally both those currently working in the field or considering a career in palliative care will find In the shadow of angels Intimate stories from a hospice counsellor a fascinating read
