Special Place For Santa A Legend For Our Time:

A SPECIAL PLACE FOR SANTA , Building with Our Hands Adela de la Torre, Beatriz M. Pesquera, 1993-06-07 This is the first interdisciplinary collection of articles addressing the unique history of Chicana women From a diverse range of perspectives a new generation of Chicana scholars here chronicles the previously undocumented rich tapestry of Chicanas lives over the last three centuries Focusing on how women have grappled with political subordination and sexual exploitation the contributors confront the complex intersection of class race ethnicity and gender that defines the Chicana experience in America The book analyzes the ways that oppressive power relations and resistance to domination have shaped Chicana history exploring subjects as diverse as sexual violence against Amerindian women during the Spanish conquest of California to contemporary Chicanas efforts to construct feminist cultural discourses The volume ends with a provocative dialogue among the contributors about the challenges frustrations and obstacles that face Chicana scholars and the voices heard here testify to the vibrant state of Chicano scholarship Trenchant and wide ranging this collection is essential reading for understanding the dynamics of feminism and multiculturalism
