A Subject Index to Current Literature Australian Public Affairs Information Service, Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Individual Differences in Second/Foreign Language Speech Production: Multidisciplinary Approaches and New Sounds Peijian Paul Sun, Boping Yuan, Xun Yan, Jimin Kahng, 2023-09-01 Second foreign language L2 speech production is a complex process requiring individuals combined efforts to utilize various processing components such as conceptualiser formulator and articulator Since the publication of Pim Levelt's book Speaking From Intention to Articulation in 1989 a considerable number of studies have examined L2 speech production in the field of neuroscience with a particular focus on the link between speech perception and speech production Undeniably a neurolinguistic examination of speech production can enrich our understanding of how human brains compute linguistic information at a cognitive level However it is insufficient by only focusing on the neurocognitive dimension of speech production given that individuals speech production can be subject to various individual differences factors either cognitively affectively or socio culturally It is therefore necessary to move beyond the neurocognitive understanding of speech production by taking every possible perspective into consideration Individual difference as an umbrella term covers psychological traits personal characteristics cognitive and emotional components that distinguish learners from each other Given that individual difference factors can reveal disparities in L2 learning and performance among learners such factors have attracted researchers growing interest concerning their influences on L2 speech processing their relationships with L2 speech performance and their contributions to L2 speech development Nevertheless our understanding of L2 speech production is not only insufficient compared to other L2 skills such as writing and reading but also limited to the neurocognitive account of L2 speech production More research therefore is in urgent need to uncover the influence of various individual differences factors on L2 speech production from multidisciplinary perspectives Reflective Teaching in Secondary Schools Andrew Pollard, Caroline Daly, Katharine Burn, Steve Higgins, Aileen Kennedy, Margaret Mulholland, Jo Fraser-Pearce, Mary Richardson, Dominic Wyse, John Yandell, 2023-01-26 The book you can trust to guide you through your teaching career as the expert authors share tried and tested techniques in secondary settings For this new edition Caroline Daly with Andrew Pollard has worked with top practitioners from around the UK to create a text that is both cohesive and that continues to evolve to meet the needs of today's secondary school teachers Reflective Teaching in Schools uniquely provides two levels of support: practical evidence based guidance on key classroom issues such as relationships, behaviour, curriculum planning, teaching strategies and assessment; evidence informed principles and concepts to help you continue developing your skills. New to this edition: More case studies and research summaries based on teaching in the secondary school than ever before; New reflective activities and guidance on key readings at the end of each chapter; Updates to reflect recent changes in curriculum and assessment across the UK.

The Routledge Handbook of Inclusive Education for Teacher Educators Santoshi Halder, Shakila Dada, Rashida Banerjee, 2023-03-14 This handbook provides foundational conceptual and practical knowledge and understanding of inclusive education and special needs education. It highlights the need for preparing special educators and teachers for inclusive classrooms to effectively cater to the needs of students with diverse needs in various low middle and high income countries globally. It demonstrates various evidence based and practice based strategies required to create classrooms inclusive of diverse learners. While tracing the historical trajectory of the foundational underpinnings, philosophical bases and crucial issues associated with inclusive education, this book presents a future roadmap and pathways through case instances and in depth discussions to share with educators how they can strengthen their bases and make learning more inclusive in their context. It also provides an overview of the different models of assessment and their applications in the analysis of children in inclusive classroom settings. Comprehensive, accessible and nuanced, this handbook will be of immense interest and benefit to teachers, educators, special educators, students, scholars and researchers in the areas of social inclusion, education, special needs education, educational psychology, technology for inclusion, disability studies among other related disciplines. It will be extremely beneficial for academicians, teacher educators, special educators and those interested in professional teacher training courses.

Child Development and Education Teresa M. McDevitt, Jeanne Ellis Ormrod, Glenn Cupit, Margaret Chandler, Valarie Aloa, 2012-08-21 Child Development and Education is a comprehensive child development text written especially for educators. It helps students to translate developmental theories into practical implications for teaching and caring for youngsters with diverse backgrounds, characteristics and needs. The text draws from innumerable theoretical concepts, research studies conducted around the world and the authors' own experiences as parents, teachers, psychologists and researchers to identify strategies for promoting young people's physical, cognitive and social/emotional growth. In this Australian edition, contemporary Australian and New Zealand research has been highlighted and local educational structures, philosophies and controversies have been reflected.
