Paul Bowles's Literary Engagement with Morocco Bouchra

Benlemlih,2018-01-05 This study argues that Paul Bowles is more perceptive than many American travelers in Morocco The book provides us with what are perhaps the most sustained meditations to date on Bowles s translation work and his autobiography as well as perceptive analyses of key stories such as A Distant Episode and Here to Learn and his second novel Let It Come Down set primarily in Tangier The chapter on translation dwells on the complex interactions between Moroccan storytellers and Bowles The work considers translation as a site where the oral and written colonial and post colonial scene and English and Maghrebi come face to face it is a place where things are worked out in dynamic interaction The chapter on Bowles s autobiography Without Stopping urges us to take this piece of self writing famously dubbed Without Telling by William Burroughs more seriously drawing our attention to baroque architectural features of mind and external landscape worlds distorted by mirrors dreams and fluid transit where forms morph The work also highlights difference between experience and representation of experience through language transformed through the prism of memory In the chapter on Without Stopping as well as in my discussions of Bowles s fiction I provide useful elaborations of connections between Bowles s work and that of Edgar Allan Poe My reading of one of Bowles s best known stories A Distant Episode brings to the surface a recognition that the tragic fate of the Professor the story s protagonist is an outcome of his inability to admit that cultures are not static The academically trained linguist demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to adapt to change or to read cultural signs accurately The message is that Morocco is not stuck in time and cannot be held in place by Orientalist fantasies or preconceived externally derived intellectual constructs and assumptions The book concludes that against the grain of Samuel Huntington s notion of Clash of Civilizations Bowles s poetic and geographical journey forcefully projects cosmopolitanism and transnational attention confirming that civilizations and identities open up rather than shut down war or clash

A World Outside Richard F. Patteson,2014-08-04 Expatriation the sense of being outside or exposed is a central theme in the life and work of Paul Bowles Beginning with Bowles account of a frightening childhood memory A World Outside explores how the dichotomies of inside and outside safety and danger enclosure and exposure fundamental dualities in Bowles fiction have their deepest origin in the fabric of Bowles own life and also mark his kinship with other twentieth century writers Like V S Naipaul Paul Bowles is one of those writers who have an uncanny grasp of what it is like never to feel at home In this much needed study Richard Patteson explores how this sense of outsideness characterizes one s experience in a world in which many of the traditional shelters social familial religious seem to have lost their ability to protect He discovers that storytelling is the vehicle by which both Bowles and his characters attempt to domesticate inchoate experience bringing it into the familiar interior of human comprehension The music world has for decades recognized Paul Bowles stature as a composer but his fiction is only recently receiving the close attention it has long deserved from students of American and contemporary literature Bowles is an author who neither sought nor received the kind of publicity often lavished on his contemporaries but one whom an ever growing audience regards as a commanding figure of twentieth century American literature In Touch Paul Bowles,1994 Chronicle of the twentieth century avant garde Desert Songs John Maier,1996-07-03 In an unusual approach to cultural studies John Maier examines a wide variety of modern Western and Eastern texts He brings together very different forms of cultural production modern and postmodern fiction and folktales advertising copy and oral histories travel literature and ethnographic studies Many academic disciplines are also juxtaposed literature and literary theory linguistics history psychoanalysis sociology film studies women s studies and anthropology largely because they have themselves been transformed by the cultural questions raised here Minor American Fiction, 1920-1940 C.
