The Fifties And Beyond:

San Angelo 1950s and Beyond Gerron S. Hite, 2013 San Angelo grew steadily as the largest trading center in the region after World War II doubling in population from 1940 to 1950 Growth was spurred by oil production west of the city construction of the Goodfellow Air Force Base and the establishment of local ranches to raise sheep goats and cattle San Angelo had its share of regional and national businesses such as Woolworth S H Kress in recent years however the downtown has seen a rebirth thanks to visionary individuals with projects such as a new fine art museum and a department store converted into the central library Many other developments are on the horizon

Nigeria at 50 and Beyond: a Case for World Conscience Iyken Nnanedu, 2014-07-22 The developed countries must encourage Nigeria and other African countries to display responsible leadership that accounts for their actions This is an attribute of democracy which involves strict adherence to the constitution of the country involved Sectional domination of all the strategic positions has never helped development in any country Any person or group of persons gaining from such should better know that such gain is only momentary Sectional domination has given yield to high rate of corruption wastage in human resources and unnecessary bloodshed among other crimes The ultimate aim of practical politics is attainment of power One thing about power is that it carries certain obligations and responsibilities The initial aim of the seeker may be to serve Power is supposed to be used as a latent weapon for development and growth if well managed but never for destruction Power is transient and must never be seen to be localized to any section Otherwise that system that provides the platform for the wielder of such power will one day collapse and disintegrate into its component parts Therefore any person or group of persons suggesting or supporting sectional domination is simply encouraging the collapse of that system and should be held responsible for such The Nigerian politicians and their military's old game of business as usual looting of resources meant that development is better gone forever Same goes for the sectional military coup coming to the rescue of its civilian government using constitution drafting and state creation as means of diverting attention for consolidation until the environment is once more conducive for its civilian government However in Arthur Nzeribes Nigeria The Turning Point he says that leaders must know that politics or leadership is a serious business that involves millions of people They must therefore recognize the significance of seriousness in policy making and must not toy with lives of these millions by altering the sectional domination
