Possessed Rebecca R. Falkoff, 2021-05-15 In Possessed Rebecca R Falkoff asks how hoarding once a paradigm of economic rationality came to be defined as a mental illness Hoarding is unique among the disorders included in the American Psychiatric Association's DSM 5 because its diagnosis requires the existence of a material entity the hoard Possessed therefore considers the hoard as an aesthetic object produced by clashing perspectives about the meaning or value of objects The 2000s have seen a surge of cultural interest in hoarding and those whose possessions overwhelm their living spaces Unlike traditional economic elaborations of hoarding which focus on stockpiles of bullion or grain contemporary hoarding results in accumulations of objects that have little or no value or utility Analyzing themes and structures of hoarding across a range of literary and visual texts including works by Nikolai Gogol Arthur Conan Doyle Carlo Emilio Gadda Luigi Malerba Song Dong and E L Doctorow Falkoff traces the fraught materialities of the present to cluttered spaces of modernity bibliomaniacs libraries flea markets crime scenes dust heaps and digital archives Possessed shows how the figure of the hoarder has come to personify the economic epistemological and ecological conditions of modernity Thanks to generous funding from New York University and its participation in TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access OA volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other Open Access repositories
