The Fleury Playbook Essays And Studies:

The Fleury Playbook Thomas P. Campbell, Clifford Davidson, 1985 Growing out of a symposium on the Fleury Playbook at the International Congress on Medieval Studies this book includes essays from the symposium as well as additional papers written by scholars whose specialties were not represented at the conference Each essay covers a unique topic in the study of the Playbook utilizing a diverse set of methodological tools and interdisciplinary approaches for subjects which have not heretofore received adequate scholarly attention The topics at hand are each of significant interest to the field at large

The Elemental Passion for Place in the Ontopoiesis of Life Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-04-18 Continuing the pioneering work in the field laid bare by the uncovering the Creative Condition of the human being in literature and fine arts the elemental passion of place leads us through the creative imagination into the labyrinths of the ontopoiesis of life itself Tymieniecka in her inaugural study Essays by A T Tymieniecka Mary Catanzaro W Smith Jadwiga Smith L Dunton Downer Jorge Garc a Gomez Ch Eykmann Marlies Kronegger Eldon N van Liere Hans Rudnik make this collection a unique contribution to literary studies as well as to the metaphysics of life and of the human condition The Medieval European Stage, 500-1550 William Tydeman, 2001-09-27 This volume brings together a wide selection of primary source materials from the theatrical history of the Middle Ages The focus is on Western Europe between the fall of the Roman Empire and the emergence of markedly Renaissance forms in Italy Early sections of the volume are devoted to the survival of Classical tradition and the development of the liturgical drama of the Roman Catholic Church but the main concentration is on the genesis and growth of popular religious drama in the vernacular Each of the major medieval regions is featured while a final section covers the pastimes and customs of the people a record of whose traditional activities often only survives in the margins of official recognition The documents are compiled by a team of leading scholars in the field and the over 700 documents are all presented in modern English translation The Massacre of the Innocents Warren Carter, 2023-01-30 In The Massacre of the Innocents Studies in the Cultural Afterlife of a Gospel Scene Warren Carter examines some fifty instances of the interpretation of the Matthean Massacre of the Innocents Matt 2 16 18 He emphasizes the agency of interpreters who in their particular contexts and media think with the shocking Matthean scene to address the often tragic circumstances of their audiences He argues throughout that the structure of the Gospel scene facilitates this thinking with The scene is structured as a triad of power relations with a tyrant Herod victims infants and parents and violent means of tyranny the massacre Interpreters use this triad of power relations to identify tyrant s victims and means of tyranny in their own situations Carter illustrates the use of this triad of power relations across two millennia in numerous socio political contexts and media as diverse as sermons images poems and hymns dramas and festivals films novels Christmas carols and Children s Bibles A Companion to the Medieval Theatre Ronald W. Vince, 1989-03-27 Vince has provided a useful and for the most part usable reference work His introduction should be required reading for anyone approaching medieval theater

Choice Scholars increasingly see medieval theatre as a complex and vital performance medium related more closely to political religious and social life than to literature as we know it Reflecting the current interest in performance A Companion to the Medieval Theatre presents 250 alphabetically arranged entries offering a panoramic view of European and British theatrical productions between the years 900 and 1550 The volume features 30 essays contributed by an international group of specialists and includes many shorter entries as well as systematic cross referencing a chronology a bibliography and a full complement of indexes Major entries focus on the theatres of the principal linguistic areas the British Isles France Germany Iberia Italy Scandinavia the Low Countries and Eastern Europe and on dramatic forms and genres such as liturgical drama Passion and saint plays morality plays folk drama and Humanist drama Other articles examine costume acting pageantry and music and explore the theatrical dimension of courtly entertainment the dance and the tournament Short entries supply information on over one hundred playwrights directors actors and antiquarians whose contributions to the theatre have been documented This informative guide brings new depth to our appreciation of the richness and color of medieval public entertainments and the symbolism and pageantry that were a part of daily life in the Middle Ages Designed to appeal to general reader this volume is also an attractive choice for libraries serving students and scholars of theatre history English and European literatures medieval history cultural history drama and performance

Living with Disfigurement in Early Medieval Europe Patricia Skinner, 2016-12-21 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This book examines social and medical responses to the disfigured face in early medieval Europe arguing that the study of head and facial injuries can offer a new contribution to the history of early medieval medicine and culture as well as exploring the language of violence and social interactions Despite the prevalence of warfare and conflict in early medieval society and a veritable industry of medieval historians studying it there has in fact been very little attention paid to the subject of head wounds and facial damage in the course of war and or punitive justice The impact of acquired disfigurement for the individual and for her or his family and community is barely registered and only recently has there been any attempt to explore the question of how damaged tissue and bone might be treated medically or surgically In the wake of new work on disability and the emotions in the medieval period this study documents how acquired disfigurement is recorded across different geographical and chronological contexts in the period

Staging History, 2021-02-08 Staging History unites essays by nine specialists in the field of late medieval and early Renaissance drama Their focus is on English Dutch and Humanist German drama as well as on a modern Swiss adaptation of Shakespeare's Henry V Featuring prominently in this book are plays by among others John Bale Jacob Schoepper Johannes Agricola and Jacob Duym Special attention is also paid to the Croxton Play of the Sacrament and the Dutch abele spelen So far this topic has not received wide attention within the world of medieval and early Renaissance studies This exploration aims at arousing more interest in this field by scholars working on European drama from the late Middle Ages and the early Renaissance

Gender and Power in Medieval Exegesis T. Tinkle, 2010-10-18

After establishing a feminist historicist perspective on the tradition of biblical commentary Tinkle develops in depth case studies that situate scholars reading the bible in three distinct historical moments and in so doing she exposes the cultural pressures that medieval scholars felt as they interpreted the bible

The Christina Psalter Marina Vidas, 2006 This book is the first detailed analysis of an exquisitely illuminated thirteenth century Parisian manuscript The Royal Library Copenhagen which was owned by Christina of Norway 1234-1262 daughter of Haakon IV and wife of Philip of Castile and Leon New information is provided about the Psalter's medieval and later components its liturgical and other functions missing illuminations and texts as well as its provenance and date Furthermore the stylistic and iconographic similarities between the Psalter and some of the most important manuscripts illuminated in Paris in the Period like the three volume Moralized Bibles are discussed Suggestions also are made about the meanings the texts and images might have had for their intended audience

From Criminal to Courtier David Kunzle, 2021-10-11 The art of the Netherlands Dutch and Flemish is unique in Early Modern Europe in its concern for military cruelty against civilians principally the peasantry Decimated by time and changes in taste this popular iconography proves varied and extensive stretching from Bruegel to and past Rubens Massacres of the Innocents continue to be a favourite subject through the Eighty Years War in contrast to ruling class glorifications of war Dutch patriotic siege prints lay claim to scientific precision in landscapes free of military terror while the idea of military conquest is presented as generous rather than cruel in the ever popular figure of Scipio Africanus Most of the pictorial material is unfamiliar some of it even to specialists and never before published new light is shed on the more familiar phenomena of the civic guard groups and Ter Borch courtier officers good soldiers overcoming a bad image
