Soviet Foreign Aid Marshall I. Goldman, 1967      American and Soviet Aid Robert S. Walters, 2010-11-23 This book presents a comprehensive comparison of economic aid programs by the United States and the Soviet Union to less developed countries. It examines aid to many of the non Communist nations of Asia, Africa, the Near East, Latin America. Robert S. Walters views aid programs in terms of their objectives, the size and structure of disbursements and operational and administrative principles. In addition, he examines the delicate balance between trade policy and general foreign policy and the difficulties and results experienced by the U.S. and Soviet Union in their respective programs      The Soviet Union and Eastern Europe in the Global Economy Marie Lavigne, 1992-07-09 The Soviet Union and Eastern Europe are moving away from a centrally planned economy toward integration within the global economy. How did this transition begin? Is this an aim which all the countries can afford? What conditions are to be met so that the countries will achieve a level of development comparable with the average level of their industrial partners? In this 1992 volume, leading international political economists from both the East and West provide an in-depth analysis of these questions. The contributors assess how the transition to the market requires liberalizing foreign trade, introducing convertibility and transforming property structures, all of which are also part of the ongoing domestic reform. They also examine how these countries overcome their development lag and implement a restructuring policy      The Net Cost of Soviet Foreign Aid James Richard Carter, 1969      Foreign Assistance and Related Agencies Appropriations United States.
