Soviet Military Art In A Time Of Change:

Soviet Military Art in a Time of Change Robert C. M. Hall, 1991 An appreciation of the command and control system of any Armed Forces provides the key to understanding how the military power of that state is used In the present climate of political and economic instability in the Soviet Union a thorough examination of Soviet command and control is essential The author describes the origins and current configurations of the system He explains how technological advances in weapons systems and developments in troop control have promoted change at all levels These in turn have influenced military doctrine the constantly evolving set of precepts and theories that define much of Soviet strategic and operation practice Dust jacket
