Steiner,Zara Steiner,2007 In The Lights that Failed Steiner challenges the assumption that the Treaty of

Versailles led to the opening of a second European war and provides an analysis of the attempts to reconstruct Europe during the 1920s OCLC The People in Arms Daniel Moran, Arthur Waldron, 2003 The People in Arms first published in 2002 is concerned with the mass mobilization of society for war It takes as its starting point the French levée en masse of 1793 which replaced former theories and regulations concerning the obligation of military service with a universal concept more encompassing in its moral claims than any that had prevailed under the Ancien Régime The levée en masse has accordingly gone down in history as a spontaneous free expression of the French people's ideals and enthusiasm It also became a crucial source for one of the most powerful organizing myths of modern politics that compulsory mass social mobilizations merely express and give effective form to the wishes or higher values of society and its members The aim of the papers presented here is to analyse and compare episodes in which this distinctive ideological configuration has played a leading role

Stalin's General
Geoffrey Roberts, 2012-08-02 Marshal Georgy Zhukov is one of military history's legendary names He played a decisive role in the battles of Moscow Stalingrad and Kursk that brought down the Nazi regime He was the first of the Allied generals to enter Berlin and it was he who took the German surrender He led the huge victory parade in Red Square riding a white horse and in doing so dangerously provoking Stalin's envy His post war career was equally eventful Zhukov found himself sacked and banished twice and wrongfully accused of disloyalty However he remains one of the most decorated officers in the history of both Russia and the Soviet Union Since his death in 1974 Zhukov has increasingly been seen as the indispensable military leader of the Second World War surpassing Eisenhower Patton Montgomery and MacArthur in his military brilliance and ferocity Making use of hundreds of documents from Russian military archives as well as unpublished versions of Zhukov's memoirs Geoffrey Roberts fashions a remarkably intimate portrait of a man whose personality was as fascinating as it was contradictory Tough decisive strong willed and brutal as a soldier in his private life he was charming and gentle Zhukov's relations with Stalin's other generals were often prickly and fraught with rivalry but he was the only one among them to stand up to the Soviet dictator Piercing the hyperbole of the Zhukov personality cult Roberts debunks many of the myths that have sprung up around Zhukov's life to deliver fresh insights into the marshal's relations with Stalin Khrushchev and Eisenhower A highly regarded historian of Soviet Russia Roberts has fashioned the definitive biography of this seminal 20th century figure
