

THE UNKNOWN LEGACY

*Jeff wants the love with a woman
he could never marry.
It could cost his family everything
even their very lives.
The story of a white South African family torn by apartheid.*

Soweto Legacy:

Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan, 2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba Bearing Witness Stephanie N. Arel, 2023-09-26 Museum memorialization has long been about politics design implications and visitor experience rarely focused upon the people mired in commemorating the dead Profound challenges confront those who memorialize mass trauma at memorial museums Listening to the voices of those called to do this work enables insight into the critical role they play in preserving and disseminating history's most painful narratives expanding views of recovery from mass trauma and revealing the value in the profession As an Andrew W Mellon Fellow at the National September 11 Memorial Museum Dr Stephanie Arel recognized costs psychological spiritual and physical aligned with responding to mass trauma and participating in communal recovery The impact of bearing witness at memorial museums emerged in the lives of workers To explore the phenomenon she visited Auschwitz interviewing those who remember the Holocaust's horrors while resisting its infiltration in their personal lives The immensity of honoring the dead for others inspired additional sojourns in Bosnia Herzegovina Cambodia Israel South Africa and the United States She discovered dimensions of pride and care evident in those who honor memory the capacity of workers to address reverberating political tensions while tending to visitor needs the passion workers have for giving voice to the voiceless who died during traumatic events while offering care and support to the survivors and the reality that reassembling the fragments of mass trauma is not for the weary but instead emerges as a calling and a vocation Bearing Witness places value on what workers do opening space for workers' testimonies to be heard for the first time and creating a global community of and for these workers who have otherwise never been given a platform to speak about their experiences The interviews reveal the entanglement of politics with commemoration the sacredness of remembering and the multidimensional aspects of care transforming the reader's understanding of humanity forever Falling Monuments, Reluctant Ruins Hilton Judin, 2021-06-01 This edited collection looks at ruins and vacant buildings as part of South Africa's oppressive history of colonialism and apartheid and ways in which the past persists into the present Falling Monuments Reluctant Ruins The Persistence of the Past in the Architecture of Apartheid interrogates how in the era of decolonization post-apartheid South Africa reckons with its past in order to shape its future Architects historians artists social anthropologists and urban planners seek answers in this book to complex and unsettling questions around heritage ruins and remembrance What do we do with hollow memorials and political architectural remnants Which should remain which forgotten and which dismantled Are these vacant buildings cemeteries statues and derelict grounds able to serve as inspiration in the fight against enduring racism and social neglect Should they become exemplary as spaces for restitution and justice The contributors examine the influence of public memory planning and activism on such anguished places of oppression resistance and defiance Their focus on visible markers in the landscape to interrogate our past will make readers reconsider these spaces looking at their landscape and history anew Through a series of 14 empirically grounded chapters and 48 images the contributors seek to understand how architecture contests or subverts these persistent conditions in order to promote social justice land reclamation and urban rehabilitation The decades following the dismantling of apartheid are surveyed in light of contemporary heritage projects where building ruins and abandoned spaces are challenged and renegotiated across the country to become sites of protest inspiration and anger This ground breaking collection is an important resource for professionals academics and activists working in South Africa today Places of Pain and Shame

William Logan, Keir Reeves, 2008-12-05 Places of Pain and Shame is a cross cultural study of sites that represent painful and or shameful episodes in a national or local community's history and the ways that government agencies heritage professionals and the communities themselves seek to remember commemorate and conserve these cases or conversely choose to forget them Such episodes and locations include massacre and genocide sites places related to prisoners of war civil and political prisons and places of benevolent internment such as leper colonies and lunatic asylums These sites bring shame upon us now for the cruelty and futility of the events that occurred within them and the ideologies they represented They are however increasingly being regarded as heritage sites a far cry from the view of heritage that prevailed a generation ago when we were almost entirely concerned with protecting the great and beautiful creations of the past reflections of the creative genius of humanity rather than the reverse the destructive and cruel side of history Why has this shift occurred and what implications does it have for professionals practicing in the heritage field In what ways is this a difficult heritage to deal with This volume brings together academics and practitioners to explore these questions covering not only some of the practical matters but also the theoretical and conceptual issues and uses case studies of historic places museums and memorials from around the globe including the United States Northern Ireland Poland South Africa China Japan Taiwan Cambodia Indonesia Timor and Australia Heritage, Museums and Galleries Gerard Corsane, 2004-11-10

This reader provides a starting point and introductory resource for anyone wishing to engage with certain key issues relating to the heritage museums and galleries sector Public History and Culture in South Africa Ali Khangela

Hlongwane, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, 2019-04-11 The post apartheid era in South Africa has in the space of nearly two decades experienced a massive memory boom manifest in a plethora of new memorials and museums and in the renaming of streets buildings cities and more across the country This memorialisation is intricately linked to questions of power liberation and public history in the making and remaking of the South African nation Ali Khangela Hlongwane and Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu analyse an array of these liberation heritage sites including the Hector Pieterse Memorial and Museum the June 16 1976 Interpretation Centre the Apartheid Museum and the Mandela House Museum foregrounding the work of migrant workers architects visual artists and activists in the practice of memorialisation As they argue memorialisation has been integral to the process of state and nation formation from the pre colonial era through the present day Shades of Resilience: A Childhood in Apartheid South Africa Chrystal Brady,2025-03-11 Shades of Resilience takes readers on a poignant journey through the complex tapestry of life in Apartheid South Africa It paints a vivid picture of the stark contrasts that defined this era weaving personal narratives with historical insights to illuminate the impact of oppression on a young mind The book offers a captivating account of daily life under the oppressive regime capturing the challenges fears and resilience of an entire generation It explores the intricate web of laws and social constructs that shaped identities and limited opportunities while showcasing the indomitable spirit that persisted amidst adversity Shades of Resilience goes beyond mere historical documentation offering a profound exploration of the human experience It highlights the value of perseverance hope and the importance of finding strength in the face of injustice Through poignant storytelling it illuminates the lasting scars of apartheid while celebrating the resilience and triumph of those who endured it Livable Cities Mohsen Aboulnaga,Antonella Trombadore,Mona Mostafa,Ahmed Abouaiana,2024-07-01 Livable Cities Urban Heat Islands Mitigation for Climate Change Adaptation Through Urban Greening elucidates on livability in urban areas providing readers with definitions and indicators of what makes a city livable It comprehensively introduces the urban heat island effect UHIE and offers strategies for mitigating high surface temperatures in metropolitan areas and adapting to climate change CC The coverage highlights the linkage between UHIE and Sustainable Development Goals SDGs the socio economic impacts of urban heat islands UHIs their effect on livability for citizens and the costs and benefits of mitigating UHI In addition it encompasses background information about the problems and challenges that megacities face in the 21st century followed by the cooling benefits that can be achieved from the different types of urban green coverage UGC whether conventional or innovative The book presents case studies on six cities that have successfully applied UGC Chicago United States Curitiba Brazil Stuttgart Germany Tokyo Asia Melbourne Australia and Johannesburg South Africa Additional case studies illustrate UHIE mapping in greater Cairo Egypt and Rome Italy to determine hot spot areas that need interventions and prioritization of UGC Highlights also include the role of blue and green infrastructures in creating livable cities in the post COVID 19 world trends of bi correlation between urban green spaces UGSs UGC and COVID 19 and global patterns of UGSs to shape better healthy sustainable and resilient cities Explains urban heat islands their causes and strategies for climate change adaptation to create livable cities Highlights the role of urban green coverage in post COVID 19 regulations in shaping more livable sustainable and resilient cities Explores ways to reduce the urban heat island effect by exploiting urban greening to mitigate high temperatures in large cities like Cairo and Rome Ads to Icons Paul Springer,2009-08-03 The second edition of Ads to Icons examines current and future trends in advertising Through 50 updated international case studies of new and iconic advertising campaigns author Paul Springer identifies why they were successful and analyses their contribution to the continued development of advertising New digital formats analysed include Google s AdSense and AdWords which reworked their search facility as a revenue generating advertising service The growing potential of the Internet as an advertising vehicle is illustrated This updated new edition includes an online campaign entitled Non Stop Fernando a campaign that exploits the potential of online film It also features the new Nike case study which details Nike s third party association with Apple iPod through Nike and brought together Apple s digital know how and music expertise with Nike s industry sector experience The author shows how traditional media have been revitalised by the adoption of revolutionary approaches to their use making the resulting adverts more creative and impactful than before Other campaigns have extended beyond conventional formats including the first personal SMS text messaging campaign for Cadbury chocolate and Levi s creation of a brand character Flat Eric to drive viral communication before the television commercials aired Finally the impact on the structure of agencies and job functions is discussed illustrated by profiles of industry professionals

Disrupting the Digital Humanities Dorothy Kim, Jesse Stommel, 2018 All too often defining a discipline becomes more an exercise of exclusion than inclusion Disrupting the Digital Humanities seeks to rethink how we map disciplinary terrain by directly confronting the gatekeeping impulse of many other so called field defining collections What is most beautiful about the work of the Digital Humanities is exactly the fact that it can t be tidily anthologized In fact the desire to neatly define the Digital Humanities to filter the DH y from the DH is a way of excluding the radically diverse work that actually constitutes the field This collection then works to push and prod at the edges of the Digital Humanities to open the Digital Humanities rather than close it down Ultimately it s exactly the fringes the outliers that make the Digital Humanities both lovely and rigorous This collection does not constitute yet another reservoir for the new Digital Humanities canon Rather our aim is less about assembling content as it is about creating new conversations Building a truly communal space for the digital humanities requires that we all approach that space with a commitment to

- 1 creating open and non hierarchical dialogues
- 2 championing non traditional work that might not otherwise be recognized through conventional scholarly channels
- 3 amplifying marginalized voices
- 4 advocating for students and learners and
- 5 sharing generously to support the work of our peers

Africa's Political Economy (RLE Sports Studies) Grant Jarvie,2014-04-24 In recent years the interest in the patterns and policies of South African sport has grown This book examines the increasingly complex issue of race class and sport in the context of South African social relations The author disputes evaluations made purely on the question of race maintaining that it is important to examine the complex interaction between racial and class dynamics as a background for understanding the South African way of life The book demonstrates that sport must be understood in the context of the ensemble of social relations characterizing the South African social formation Legal Geographies of Water Cristy Clark,2025-06-30 This book deepens our understanding of humanity s diverse relationships with water and the law providing a critical assessment of this relationship and charting the course towards a more sustainable and just water future By using legal geography this book pays particular attention to the place based inter relationships between water people and law both formal and informal and to the ways that law both constitutes and is constituted by the relationship between people and place Starting in the 1980s Chapter 2 investigates the early commodification of water through the liberalisation of rural water markets in Chile and the urban water supply and sanitation systems of England and Wales Chapter 3 then examines the global expansion of neoliberal water governance in the 1990s starting with donor driven reforms in the global south and particularly Manila in the Philippines Chapters 4 and 5 document both the grassroots response to these neoliberal water reforms and the inherent tensions in the attempts of the early 2000s to reconcile the recognition of a human right to water with the ongoing rollout of market mechanisms both in the domestic context of South Africa and within the United Nations human rights system Moving forward again Chapter 6 examines the recent intensification of neoliberal water governance through financialisation and considers its specific impacts in Detroit and Flint Michigan Chapter 7 then considers the renewed global emphasis on living waters and Indigenous ontologies of water by examining the new legislative arrangements for the Whanganui River in Aotearoa New Zealand The book concludes in Chapter 8 by highlighting the stories of hope that can be found in many of the case studies explored in the book and in emerging examples from around the world This book is essential reading for students and scholars interested in water law security and justice from across a wide range of disciplines including environmental studies law geography human rights and political ecology
