biophysics community redirected their disciplinary priorities toward rocket science in the late 1950s to accommodate the national interests of the time Biophysicists who had worked on biological sounding rockets were drawn to the military sector and continued to contribute to human spaceflight in post Mao China Besides the rocket and space missions which provided the material context for biophysics to expand in the late 1950s and early 1960s Chinese biophysicists also created research and educational programs surrounding biophysics by exploiting the institutional opportunities afforded by the policy emphasis on science's role to drive modernization The book explores and demonstrates the collective achievements and struggles of Chinese biophysicists in building their scientific discipline

Performance Art in China Thomas J.

Berghuis,2006 Performance Art in China takes as its subject one of the most dynamic and controversial areas of experimental art practice in China In his comprehensive study Sydney based theorist and art historian Thomas J Berghuis introduces and investigates the idea of the role of the mediated subject of the acting body in art a notion grounded in the realization that the body is always present in art practice as well as its subsequent secondary representations Through a series of in depth case studies Berghuis reveals how during the past 25 years Chinese performance artists have acted out their art often in opposition to the principles governing correct behavior in the public domain In addition to a 25 year chronology of events a systematic index of places names and key terms as well as a bibliography and a glossary in English and Chinese this study also offers the reader numerous previously unpublished photos and documents

China's Grand Strategy Lukas K.

Danner,2018-02-14 This book describes the main contradictions in China's actions on the world stage peaceful vs assertive through a culturally informed framework that takes into account China's historical memory and political culture The author analyzes nine cases including the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank AIIB as examples that show both China's commitment to peace and development in the region as well as its concerted effort to introduce alternative institutions on the global stage that could challenge the hegemony of the West and Western values
