Space In The Roman World Its Perception And Presentation:

Space and Society in the Greek and Roman Worlds Michael Scott, 2013 An interdisciplinary study of the dynamic relationship between space and society through case studies across the ancient Greek and Roman worlds Space in the Roman World Richard J. A. Talbert, Kai Brodersen, 2004 How was space perceived and presented in the Roman world While it is tempting to assume that any modern historical atlas with its maps of the world as the Romans saw it gives a sufficient answer to these questions recent research has suggested that the issue is more complex than this To follow up such questions in more detail the five original contributions to this volume by leading experts from Britain Germany the United States and Switzerland discuss the tradition of scientific geography Roman itinerary literature and the Tabula Peutingeriana

Latin Elegy and the Space of Empire Sara H. Lindheim, 2021 This book explores the ways in which Latin poets of the late Republic and the Augustan Age participate in a new cultural preoccupation with the dramatically expanding geographical space of empire Space, Time and Language in Plutarch Aristoula Georgiadou, Katerina Oikonomopoulou, 2017-10-10 Space and time have been key concepts of investigation in the humanities in recent years In the field of Classics in particular they have led to the fresh appraisal of genres such as epic historiography the novel and biography by enabling a close focus on how ancient texts invest their representations of space and time with a variety of symbolic and cultural meanings This collection of essays by a team of international scholars seeks to make a contribution to this rich interdisciplinary field by exploring how space and time are perceived linguistically codified and portrayed in the biographical and philosophical work of Plutarch of Chaeronea 1st 2nd centuries CE The volume's aim is to show how philological approaches in conjunction with socio cultural readings can shed light on Plutarch's spatial terminology and clarify his conceptions of time especially in terms of the ways in which he situates himself in his era's fascination with the past The volume's intended readership includes Classicists intellectual and cultural historians and scholars whose field of expertise embraces theoretical study of space and time along with the linguistic strategies used to portray them in literary or historical texts Rome's World Richard J. A. Talbert, 2010-08-16 A long overdue reinterpretation and appreciation of the Peutinger Map as a masterpiece both of mapmaking and imperial Roman ideology The Journey of Theophanes John Matthews, 2006-01-01 At the outset of the twentieth century malaria was Italy's major public health problem It was the cause of low productivity poverty and economic backwardness while it also stunted literacy limited political participation and undermined the army In this book Frank Snowden recounts how Italy became the world centre for the development of malariology as a medical discipline and launched the first national campaign to eradicate the disease Snowden traces the early advances the setbacks of world wars and Fascist dictatorship and the final victory against malaria after World War II He shows how the medical and teaching professions helped educate people in their own self defence and in the process expanded trade unionism women's consciousness and civil liberties He also discusses the antimalarial effort under Mussolini

s regime and reveals the shocking details of the German army's intentional release of malaria among Italian civilians the first and only known example of bioterror in twentieth century Europe Comprehensive and enlightening this history offers important lessons for today's global malaria emergency Sociological Studies in Roman History Keith Hopkins, 2018

Collected essays by Cambridge sociologist Keith Hopkins one of the most radical innovative and influential Roman historians of his generation Geography and Ethnography Kurt A. Raaflaub, Richard J. A. Talbert, 2012-12-18 This fascinating volume brings together leading specialists who have analyzed the thoughts and records documenting the worldviews of a wide range of pre modern societies Presents evidence from across the ages from antiquity through to the Age of Discovery Provides cross cultural comparison of ancient societies around the globe from the Chinese to the Incas and Aztecs from the Greeks and Romans to the peoples of ancient India Explores newly discovered medieval Islamic materials Mapping Galilee in Josephus, Luke, and John John Vonder Bruegge, 2016-05-30 The study of 1st century CE Galilee has become an important subfield within the broader disciplines of Ancient Judaism and Early Christianity In Mapping Galilee John M Vonder Bruegge examines how Galilee is portrayed both in ancient writings and current scholarship as a variously mapped space using insights from critical geography as an evaluative lens Conventional approaches to Galilee treat it as a static backdrop for a deliberate and dynamic historical drama By reasserting geography as a creative process rather than a passive description Vonder Bruegge also reasserts ancient Galilee as an interpreted space a series of conceptualized maps laden with meaning significance and purpose for each individual author A Companion to Late Antique Literature Scott McGill, Edward J. Watts, 2018-07-27 Noted scholars in the field explore the rich variety of late antique literature With contributions from leading scholars in the field A Companion to Late Antique Literature presents a broad review of late antique literature The late antique period encompasses a significant transitional era in literary history from the mid third century to the early seventh century The Companion covers notable Greek and Latin texts of the period and provides a varied overview of literature written in six other late antique languages Comprehensive in scope this important volume presents new research methodologies and significant debates in the field The Companion explores the histories forms features audiences and uses of the literature of the period This authoritative text Provides an inclusive overview of late antique literature Offers the widest survey to date of the literary traditions and forms of the period including those in several languages other than Greek and Latin Presents the most current research and new methodologies in the field Contains contributions from an international group of contributors Written for students and scholars of late antiquity this comprehensive volume provides an authoritative review of the literature from the era Migration, Mobility and Place in Ancient Italy Elena Isayev, 2017-08-31 This book examines the nature of human mobility attitudes to it and constructions of place over the last millennium BC in Rome and Italy It demonstrates that there were high rates of mobility challenging the perception of sites and communities as static and ethnically oriented entities Mapping the Afterlife Emma Gee, 2020 This book is a tour of Afterlife landscapes from

Homer to Dante It argues that the topography of the Afterlife in Greek and Roman tradition and in Dante reflects the state of scientific knowledge at the time of the various contexts in which we find it and the landscape of the Other World is a way of exploring and assimilating the shape of this world This book posits that there is a dominant spatial idiom in afterlife landscapes which I call the Journey Vision paradigm By this the author means the presence of two kinds of space in afterlife representations the horizontal journey of the soul across the afterlife landscape and a synoptic vision of the universe This has in studies of individual texts often been characterised as an inconsistency or anomaly many scholars have argued that the Vision of the universe is out of place in the underworld landscape However when one looks across the entire tradition one finds that afterlife landscapes almost without exception contain these two kinds of space in one form or another The function of this double vision of space the Journey Vision paradigm is the book argues an attempt to harmonise the underworld as the landscape of the soul with the scientific universe and to understand humanity in terms of the cosmos and vice versa

Designing Boundaries in Early China Garret Pagenstecher Olberding, 2021-11-18 Explores how sovereign space in early China was imagined and negotiated in the ancient world Sanctuaries in Roman Dacia Csaba Szabo, 2018-11-27 This book focuses on lived ancient religious communication in Roman Dacia Testing for the first time the Lived Ancient Religion approach in terms of a peripheral province from the Danubian area this work looks at the role of sacralised spaces known commonly as sanctuaries in the religious communication of the province Urban Rituals in Sacred Landscapes in Hellenistic Asia Minor Christina G. Williamson, 2021-08-04 In Urban Rituals in Sacred Landscapes in Hellenistic Asia Minor Christina G Williamson examines the phenomenon of monumental sanctuaries in the countryside of Asia Minor that accompanied the second rise of the Greek city state in the Hellenistic period Moving beyond monolithic categories Williamson provides a transdisciplinary frame of analysis that takes into account the complex local histories landscapes material culture and social and political dynamics of such shrines in their transition towards becoming prestigious civic sanctuaries This frame of analysis is applied to four case studies the sanctuaries of Zeus Labraundos Sinuri Hekate at Lagina and Zeus Panamaros All in Karia these well documented shrines offer valuable insights for understanding religious strategies adopted by emerging cities as they sought to establish their position in the expanding world The Cambridge Companion to the Age of Attila Michael Maas, 2015 This book considers the great cultural and geopolitical changes in western Eurasia in the fifth century CE It focuses on the Roman Empire but it also examines the changes taking place in northern Europe in Iran under the Sasanian Empire and on the great Eurasian steppe Attila is presented as a contributor to and a symbol of these transformations Space, Land, Territory, and the Study of the Bible Stephen C. Russell, 2017-03-06 In this brief volume written for professional biblical scholars and graduate students being trained in Bible Stephen C Russell introduces the reader to the interdisciplinary study of space and its related concepts including land territory border frontier nature scale spatial flows and rhythm He offers a synopsis of eight approaches to the study of space that have been influential in the humanities and social sciences in recent decades sacred legal political economic ecological visual social and urban approaches He pays special attention to Henri Lefebvre s treatment of social space as a social product The volume also briefly notes some of the work being done by biblical scholars in conversation with spatial studies Geographers of the Ancient Greek World: Volume 2 D. Graham J. Shipley, 2024-04-18 Ancient Greek geographical writing is represented not just by the surviving works of the well known authors Strabo Pausanias and Ptolemy but also by many other texts dating from the Archaic to the Late Antique period Most of these texts are however hard for non specialists to find and many have never been translated into English This volume the work of an international team of experts presents the most important thirty six texts in new accurate translations In addition there are explanatory notes and authoritative introductions to each text which offer a new understanding of the individual writings and demonstrate their importance no longer marginal but in the mainstream of Greek literature and science The book includes twenty eight newly drawn maps images of the medieval manuscripts in which most of these works survive and a full Introduction providing a comprehensive survey of the field of Greek and Roman geography Placing History Anne Kelly Knowles, Amy Hillier, 2008 CD ROM contains Four Microsoft PowerPoint presentations and interactive mapping exercises some of which extend the scholarly material and addresses new issues related to historical GIS Literary Territories Scott Fitzgerald Johnson, 2016 Literary Territories argues that the literature of Late Antiquity shared a defining aesthetic sensibility which treated the classical inhabited world the oikoumene as a literary metaphor for the collection and organization of knowledge
