Hughes, W. Philpott, 2005-03-29 The First World War continues to fascinate Its profound effect on politics and society is still felt today Yet it remains a greatly misunderstood conflict shrouded in myths and misperceptions In The Palgrave Concise Historical Atlas of the First World War Philpott and Hughes leading young historians of the conflict draw on recent scholarship to present a clear introduction to the war In fifty maps accompanied by supporting text and statistical tables they survey the main battles and political features of the war This concise volume will give students and general readers important insights into the nature and effects of world war The Year's Work in Modern Language Studies, 1931 Mediterranean Europe and the Common Market Eric N. Baklanoff, 1976 National Union Catalog, 1978 Displacement, Environments, and Photo-Politics in the Mediterranean Parvati Nair, 2024-10-31 Focusing on the Mediterranean region from 2015 onwards this volume explores photography's engagement with displacement a process that denotes the environmental and social breakdown of places and the forced mobility of people The ongoing proliferation of photography of the displaced plays a crucial role in shaping opinions by sensitising the public to the despair of displacement and hardening them to the trope through repeated exposure Through a range of images by both established and amateur photographers as well as ethnographic notes that draw from interviews with actors who are either displaced or working with the displaced Parvati Nair questions the extent to which photography opens a space of possibility for the displaced in the face of globally dominant ideological drives that lead to the Anthropocene Chapters focus on key aspects of this mass phenomenon such as the question of crises no longer as exception but as historical process the lived experiences of protracted relegation to borders and exposure to possible death the prevalence of domicide and the spread of encampments and the question of hope for the future The book will be of interest to scholars in photography theory migration and refugee studies art history Mediterranean studies and political science
