

Spalding Rules

- Rule 13: The phonogram sh is used at the beginning or end of a base word (she) or at the end of a syllable (fish), but never at the beginning of a syllable after the first one, except when adding the ending of "ship". (worship)
- Rule 14: The phonograms s, g and q most commonly say 'sh' at the beginning of a second syllable.
- Rule 15: The phonogram g says 'sh' when the syllable before it ends in the letter s or when the base word has an s and it is changed.
- Rule 16: The phonogram g may also say 'zh'.
- Rule 17: Double the letters l, f and s after a single vowel at the end of a one-syllable word. This can sometimes be applied to two-syllable words too.
- Rule 18: We use the phonogram gy to say 'a' at the end of a base word, never by itself.
- Rule 19: The vowels i and o may say their second sound if followed by two consonants.
- Rule 20: We usually never write the letters s after the letter x. When we say the sound for the letter x, it includes a 's' sound already.
- Rule 21: 'All' has two l's when by itself, but if it is written with another syllable, only one l is used.
- Rule 22: 'ill' and 'full', when written by themselves, have two l's, but if with another syllable, only one l is written.
- Rule 23: The phonogram gge may only be used after a single vowel that says its first sound.
- Rule 24: When adding an ending to a word that ends with a consonant and the letter y, use i instead of y unless the ending is ing.
- Rule 25: The phonogram gg may only be used after a single vowel that says its first sound.
- Rule 26: All proper nouns (names or titles of people, places, books, days or months) must begin with a capital letter.
- Rule 27: Words that begin with the sound 'z' are always spelled with the letter z, not s.
- Rule 28: The phonogram gd has 3 sounds. It is added to make the past tense of verbs.
- Rule 29: Divide words between double consonants within a base word.
