

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO

"SPARE THE ROD, SPOIL THE CHILD"?

Spare The Rod

David Kirk

Spare The Rod:

Our Misunderstood Bible Henry Clay Trumbull, 1907 Having found the gain to himself and to some others in the added light on Bible terms and truths by these explanations and corrections the writer presents the statements and suggestions herewith hoping that they may help still others Yet none of the views here expressed are to be accepted by a Bible reader unless he find them to be conformable to Bible teachings on his more careful study But in any event good can hardly fail to come of readers being stimulated to a closer examination of the grounds for believing or of questioning as to the ideas they have been accustomed to connect with certain Bible words and terms and truths Preface Behind Closed Doors Murray Arnold Straus, Richard J. Gelles, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, Behind Closed Doors is grounded in the unprecedented national survey of the extent patterns and causes of violence in the American family Based on a study of over 2 000 families the authors provide landmark insights into this phenomenon of violence and what causes Americans to inflict it on their family members The authors explore the relationship between spousal abuse and child abuse as well as abuse between siblings violence by children against their parents and the causes and effects of verbal abuse Taken together their analysis provides a vivid picture of how violence is woven into the fabric of family life and why the hallmark of family life is both love and violence This is a comprehensive highly readable account of interest to both the professional and the layperson on an important topic which concerns the social well being of us all Should We Spare the Rod? William Louis Scott, 1920

Spare the Kids Stacey Patton, 2017-03-21 A necessary challenge to the cultural tradition of corporeal punishment in Black homes and its connections to white supremacy Encourages positive nonviolent discipline for those rearing teaching and caring for children of color Why do so many African Americans have such a special attachment to whupping children Studies show that nearly 80 percent of Black parents see spanking popping pinching and beating as reasonable effective ways to teach respect and to protect black children from the streets incarceration encounters with racism or worse However the consequences of this widely accepted approach to child rearing are far reaching and seldom discussed Dr Stacey Patton s extensive research suggests that corporal punishment is a crucial factor in explaining why Black folks are subject to disproportionately higher rates of school suspensions and expulsions criminal prosecutions improper mental health diagnoses child abuse cases and foster care placements which too often funnel abused and traumatized children into the prison system Weaving together race religion history popular culture science policing psychology and personal testimonies Dr Patton connects what happens at home to what happens in the streets in a way that is thought provoking unforgettable and deeply sobering The Proverbial "Pied Piper" Kevin J. McKenna, 2009 With more than one hundred fifty books and three hundred published articles on proverb studies that have attracted wide attention of folklorists around the world it is little wonder that international scholars look upon Wolfgang Mieder as the modern day Pied Piper of paremiology For this festschrift some of the world s leading proverb and folklore scholars have come together to commemorate Mieder s sixty fifth birthday Authors from Russia Eastern and Western Europe Israel and the United States have contributed essays representative of the scope and breadth of Mieder's own impressive scholarship The Proverbial Pied Piper honors Wolfgang Mieder's legendary contributions to the study of proverbs and contains new scholarship by some of the best paremiologists in the world

The Jewish Law Annual Volume 18 Berachyahu Lifshitz, 2010-03-31 Volume 18 of The Jewish Law Annual contains six comprehensive articles on various aspects of Jewish law Three articles address family law One addresses the painful issue of the plight of the wife whose husband withholds conjugal relations In a marriage where relations are withheld the wife may seek a divorce while her husband may withhold divorce Prolonged withholding of divorce renders the wife an agunah that is a wife chained to a dead marriage and unable to start anew and rebuild her life The author explores the halakhic feasibility of allowing a wife in such a predicament to bring a claim for damages against her husband for infliction of mental distress If such claims are allowed recalcitrant husbands may rethink their intransigence and consent to grant the divorce Another article examines the evolution of halakhic thinking on the parent child relationship It traces the stages by which halakhic family law changed from a basically patriarchal system in which both mother and the child were deemed subject to the father's will to a more balanced system where wife and husband have equal standing with respect to custody matters and the best interest of the child is the main consideration in custody proceedings In another article halakhic attitudes to corporal punishment of children are analyzed The author explores whether the Spare the rod and spoil the child adage which is based on a verse from Proverbs indeed reflects the position of Jewish law He shows that in fact while recourse to corporal punishment for educational purposes is permitted subject to detailed qualifications that greatly limit its scope two divergent approaches to corporal punishment can be discerned in the halakhic sources One maintains that administration of corporal punishment can be a useful pedagogic tool of last resort whereas the other seeks to minimize recourse to corporal punishment in the educational context questioning its efficacy The article shows that in any event the notion that corporal punishment is required by the law as some invoking the spare the rod maxim have maintained is by no means borne out by the halakhic literature The volume also features a fascinating article on the history of two societies founded in London to further the study of Jewish law using modern scholarly methodologies One society was active at the end of the 1920s and beginning of the 1930s the second was active a decade later The article explains the background to the establishment of the societies and analyzes the societies e tm objectives leaders and memberships Both societies were founded with the intention of reformulating the classic halakhic sources in a manner that would render them suitable for contemporary application in the nascent Jewish state But as the author shows ultimately much of their energy was devoted to presenting the said sources to the non Jewish legal world for the purpose of reciprocal enrichment and edification Rounding out the volume are two jurisprudential studies on classic legal problems The first explores the prohibition against seeking a second legal ruling when a ruling declaring something forbidden has been handed down What is the scope of this rule and in what ways does it differ from the res judicata principle in western law The author shows that both procedural and substantive readings of the prohibition were put forward in the talmudic commentaries and explains the jurisprudential implications of these different readings The second article examines the question of the agent who breaches his principal e tm s trust focusing on the case of the agent who executes the act he was sent to carry out but does so for himself rather than his principal To what extent is he liable for ensuing damages to the principal and is his act invariably deemed reprehensible Another issue is the legal status of the transaction carried out by such an agent Do the rights and obligations generated by the transaction accrue to the agent or to the principal And how are determinations as to the status of the transaction to be made Is the testimony of an unfaithful agent or one who has deviated from his mandate deemed trustworthy Is any role played by third parties such as vendors in determining the status of the transaction

Shared Reality E. Tory

Higgins,2019-06-04 What does it mean to be human Why do we feel and behave in the ways that we do The classic answer is that we have a special kind of intelligence But to understand what we are as humans we also need to know what we are like motivationally And what is central to this story what is special about human motivation is that humans want to share with others their inner experiences about the world share how they feel what they believe and what they want to happen in the future They want to create a shared reality with others People have a shared reality together when they experience having in common a feeling about something a belief about something or a concern about something They feel connected to another person or group by knowing that this person or group sees the world the same way that they do they share what is real about the world In this work Dr Higgins describes how our human motivation for shared reality evolved in our species and how it develops in our children as shared feelings shared practices and shared goals and roles Shared reality is crucial to what we believe sharing is believing It is central to our sense of self what we strive for and how we strive It is basic to how we get along with others It brings us together in fellowship and companionship but it also tears us apart by creating in group bubbles that conflict with one another Our shared realities are the best of us and the worst of us The Family Counselor Jerome H. Blass, PhD,2012-04-27 For years clinical psychologist Dr Jerome Blass practiced individual family and marital therapy as well as educational psychology He recorded his observations and insights into human behavior in his weekly newspaper column now he shares his wisdom with the world The Family Counselor is a compilation of more than eight hundred of Blass s columns published over a 21 year period in the Jewish Standard a northern New Jersey weekly newspaper Dr Blass uses warmth and empathy to help readers understand and deal with common individual and family problems He covers a wide range of topics including child rearing family relationships divorce death illness habits and hang ups and social and educational problems Dr Blass explains the psychology behind why we think feel and behave the way we do offering practical advice for dealing with a wide variety of life s problems and challenges Whether you re struggling with disciplining your children trying to find time for your spouse or dealing with emotional turmoil Dr Blass advocates a rational and common sense approach and will help guide you through life s obstacles large and small A Self-divided Poet Rodney Stenning Edgecombe,2009-03-26 Whereas Thomas Hood has long been regarded as a minor comic poet this book the first to devote itself exclusively to his verse provides a detailed analysis of two serious poems Hero and Leander and The Plea of the Midsummer Fairies so as to give a better sense of his range Most commentators have pointed to the influence of Keats on such occasions but close examination reveals an even greater debt to Elizabethan and Metaphysical poets whose sometimes playful deployment of the conceit struck a chord in his sensibility At the same time the book gives Hood s comic genius its due supplying detailed accounts of the deftness and panache of his light hearted oeuvre One chapter examines his excursion into the mock heroic mode Odes and Addresses to Great People and another his reliance on that airiest of forms the capriccio Whims and Oddities The study concludes with an extensive examination of Miss Kilmansegg and Her Precious Leg showing how Hood was here able to inflect a jeu d esprit with a fine Juvenalian passion English Pedagogy--old and New Henry Barnard,1876 English Pedagogy Henry Barnard,1876 Inspirational Spiritual Poems , Spare the Rod and Spoil the Child James Cotton,2020-07-19 Spare the rod and spoil the child is an adage that many are familiar with It does have a ring of truth and should be taken seriously Through the use of scripture personal experiences observation and research the author will show how spiritually aligned discipline is the key to raising children to become productive members of society and not fall prey to the ills of societal negative influences Truth, Knowledge, Or Just Plain Bull Bernard M. Development Stephen Hupp, Jeremy D. Jewell, 2015-02-23 Great Myths of Child Development reveals the latest evidence based science behind the myths and misconceptions about the developing child Shatters the most commonly held child development myths Reveals the science behind such topical issues as twin telepathy sex prediction and imaginary friends Covers hot button issues like childhood vaccines spankings time outs and breastfeeding of older children Features numerous pop culture references and examples drawn from popular TV shows and movies such as Duck Dynasty Modern Family and Mad Men Points to a wealth of supplementary resources for interested parents from evidence based treatments and self help books to relevant websites The Politics of Denial Michael A. Milburn, Sheree D. Conrad, 1996 What is the driving force behind the rage of America's white males Emotion appears to be playing a growing role in politics as evidenced by vociferous opposition to welfare abortion and immigrants as well as by the rise of the radical Religious Right anti environmentalism and the increasingly neoconservative slant of American public opinion The Politics of Denial presents a compelling explanation of these phenomena providing solid empirical evidence for the role of rigid harsh child rearing practices in the creation of punitive authoritarian adult political attitudes The authors social psychologists show how both the political and the public policy processes in the United States are distorted by the unresolved negative emotions such as fear anger and helplessness that remain from punitive parenting and by the politicians and conservative religious leaders who exploit those emotions Among the many public figures discussed are Patrick Buchanan Newt Gingrich Ronald Reagan and Billy Graham
